The Invitation:

Activate Divine Feminine Beauty Codes & Ascension to the Awakening Collective as One of the TOP Transformational Allure Consultants in the World (Oh - And Make Great Money Doing It!) by joining and graduating from Allure Priestess Mentorship.

You can take the next step on-site itself or use the few links in this pdf version to fill out the no obligation intake form here.

Future Beauty Priestess...

We are at a new frontier and the vista is truly boundless for the CONVERGENCE of professional Beauty, Light-working and Divine Feminine transformational consciousness work!

(Kind of like how the AI marketspace has exploded open after crypto);
Imagine the possibilities as NEW millionaires will be made in this fusion of energy work and verifiably practical psychic power with professional Beauty...and you could be part of this - all while living in your highest timeline, alignment and soul service!

You could be one of the first 'true' allure consultants in this form of Light-working that bridges more to beauty-valuing (and yet awakening women) in the mainstream who simply aren't seeking goddess transformation first and foremost (but they want authentic Goddess BEAUTY and felt influence).

(Of course you could also serve women who ARE into 'Goddess work' as well).

Oh - AND you don't even have to be a traditional Beauty professional, make-up artist or stylist whatsoever. I mean, I've got great fashion sense and have a serious Italian footwear collection; however, I don't serve as a 'classic beauty professional'.

But that's ok, because ALLURE is the other HALF of professional image which has everything to do with Light, visual communication mastery, power, Beauty, influence and how someone's presenting themselves.

ALLURE IS 'INNER BEAUTY' TRANSLATED INTO ON-CAMERA AND LIVE FELT INFLUENCE

Allure has its own professional LANGUAGE of Light and Light-working. This is the world of essence (which I'll go into more).

Imagine; being able to professionally help clients cultivate THEIR signature allure and beauty (while being SOUGHT after)!

Imagine a path where you can really become a master of your OWN embodied image at professional levels of organic influence and fullest expression while also being able to unlock those codes in thousands of other women!

And yes; it has everything to do with professional ALLURE and Charisma (and evolving the Beauty industry forward).

These are terms that are ALREADY VALUED in pop culture and yet virtually NO ONE knows how to directly work with them; only indirectly affecting them at best (until now!).

Even the term 'aura' is gaining more popularity, yet most who are talking about it related to presence and image don't 'actually' know what they're talking about as conscious competents; so it'll be vague, indirect guestimates (non-conscious incompetence) or a physical translation like recommending the closest serum to get the effect they're going after like a facial glow.

They just don't have the languaging of professional energy work to say what they want to say and that's ok. We're here now and YOU can be one who could help educate them on it.

I mean can you fault them if they are coming from a 'physical' paradigm focused on lower frequency Light? It's big industry but what's the evolution? How about YOU being on the frontline of it?...of making history?

Charisma experts will say things like 'stand up straight' and 'take extra time to respond to people', whereas this is the realm of professional energy work that meets Beauty (where we are actually dealing with professional LIGHT and Light-working).

With what we do; archetypal beauty becomes EMBODIED and lived rather than talked about psychologically as a behavioral modeling technique or a style to put on and wear or perform.

This is the domain of LIGHT and the higher Truth of Light and Beauty; the realm of essence. FELT TRUTH and that which has true social power and influence.

BTW; Yes this is a SHAMELESSLY very long page but that's ok...it's a PREMIUM offer that then you would have to take the next step on and by writing in this long-form format it gives you plenty of different angles to keep saturating and soaking the codes in on.

The thing is; Beauty and the power of charisma has influence IN STILLNESS so the body language and looks-centric approach of experts out there now doesn't actually answer the bigger questions (that's what I wanted to figure out my entire life).

By doing the work you've done, you're probably aware that embodiment is a big part of this equation. And yes; you want people to FEEL YOU including FROM your still images. Finally, we're in the realm of more than just physical looks-maxxing and glow up. How do you BECOME CHARISMATIC and ALLURING? That's our work and where you come in.

The Light-working pro's are coming TO BEAUTY and you could be on the frontline of Beauty awakening and ascension in the West!

I'm sure you've seen mainstream Beauty 'try' to talk about essence and allure. It can be frustrating.

They might even throw words out like 'vibe' but without being able to actually and consciously-competently WORK with it; it'll instead go to generic body language techniques or a make-up product that then accentuates it but never the actual thing directly. (Likewise, most energy healers haven't connected the world of reading energy to practical Beauty either).

You on the other hand; will be able to read, assess, consult and transform (while getting highly paid) if you choose this path as a FUSION of energy (Light) work, Divine Feminine embodiment and Beauty.

I mean, considering that Beauty and visual media is Light; this is TRUE Light-working and it's not just like your neighborhood reiki session either where beauty is separate FROM the energetic...just like the photonic sun has frequencies outside of the visible spectrum, we are still affected by it AND can measure it.

The Beauty 1.0 paradigm focuses on studio lighting and pixel resolution, but we're talking about what's overlooked; the higher frequency Light-Truth of your visuals itself. This is the realm of true Power and Beauty which is sourced in sentient Light.

The world's of professional image and energy work are now alchemically and practically fused FOR Beauty, image and influence valuing clients. You can be on the front-edge as one of the world's top allure consultants with the Allure Priestess Mentorship program and double certification.

"But is this opportunity viable Rion?"

Well...It's relevant to note that I've ALREADY made multiple 6 figures during the course of setting the proven foundation with my (#BRILLIANTAF ahead of the curve clients) over hundreds and hundreds of paid sessions with women from around the world with different backgrounds in this past decade. Most of these sessions have been archetype embodiment sessions.

They realize that Light, embodiment, essence and the Divine Feminine matters in THEIR image and 'brand' presentation and not merely inner spiritual journey.

For years, I've been on the forefront of the Goddess movement in a sense by coming in from a different angle with embodiment by working more direct energetically and in faster amounts of time.

As Allure Priestess certified, you'll be a master in Essence, Embodiment AND Expression (allure and charisma); all 3 areas.

And now...we are set to go PUBLIC on a large scale to the collective (I'm also starting Allure Workshops and you'll also be able to host these locally on your own to get new clients and expand your own brand's influence and social media presence).

It's not even about me anymore, it's about YOU and Awakening the Divine Feminine (and ultimately Divine Masculine Reclamation as well) on the FRONTLINES. I'll share more about this shift coming up b/c for years it was about me being the focus.

So, if you're already an energy healer or a woman who is into divine feminine embodiment work and wants to grow in YOUR magic while leveraging your past gifts; THIS is a special opportunity to bridge identity transformation, healing, anti-aging and yet visual results oriented energy work to potentially millions of women who already value BEAUTY and visual influence.

We get to do transformation in FASTER, performance-grade environments on-demand. This is GOOD b/c it matches the pace of professional image and Beauty. You can still offer your own more immersive retreats and so forth. In fact, APM itself will be having live retreats and you will have to be able to attend some of them in order to be part of the program.

Going through the year-long APM; you'll also have the codes to keep YOURSELF anti-aged and biologically younger, healthier, more radiant (in all ways) and younger looking. The Priestess-hood is long-term.

More and more mainstream women are opening to Goddess work but from a BEAUTY valuing lens integrated into mainstream culture and visual media; (not necessarily something closer to a drum circle, naked swimming with sisters and peyote).

They inherently value the archetypes because celebrities and famous characters usually ooze archetypes.

Much of the work you can do as an Allure Priestess is in ACTIVATING Beauty codes for women with visual and authentic LIFE change results so they can have more organic FELT influence from their live visuals and communication in business, intimately and socially.

It's not about escaping and rejecting the Matrix, it's about recodifying it ORGANICALLY with Beauty codes and Awakening; actually deepening into the truth of her beauty and desire for masterful self expression. This is a Beauty r:Evolution.

Simultaneously; this organic evolutionary timeline is critical as AI is taking a stronger hold of strengthening the architecture of the 'matrix'. AI is impressive in MANY ways to be honest, however it's a parallel timeline to Beauty's organic evolution. AI Beauty is fracturing things even more.

(This is important work and goes DEEPER than merely superficial image).

So, keep reading because we are talking about not just long-term Beauty immersion and evolution but a LITERAL PATH AND LINEAGE OF PRIESTESS-HOOD ITSELF.

I'll note upfront that this isn't just another 'energy work modality' you can learn at low cost, nuh-uh. It's an immersive path of Priestess-hood initiation.

First of all (and in speaking to that);

Joining Allure Priestess Mentorship certification program is 'not' actually low cost and I won't be lowering the cost, in fact I'll be raising it (the psychic mastery cert level will be offered as a lower priced solo offering after a year which I'll mention later).

The very specialized and highly trained path of Allure Priestess-hood is something else that is FULL SERVICE but also can get you paid very well while working less (and not having to commit to long in-person weekend workshops or retreats to get clients results).

I don't even do that much coaching or consulting with clients; there's time at the start to consult on what's best for them and then we GO RIGHT INTO THE WORK!

With more sessions, a relationship strengthens as their own transformational legacy continues with me/you. You don't have to do non-stop free discovery calls UNLESS you want to or if it's for a higher priced program and pre-qualification!

One of my offers is a $500 allure consulting session (75 minutes with proper energy reading consulting LIVE and an included tune-up and activation of choice; price subject to rise). You can model something similar and I'll work with you on YOUR offers towards the end of year 1.

(Even if someone tried to replicate our techniques btw; it's not the same b/c it required very specific initiations, experience, immersion, sacrifice and devotion to work with the Divine Feminine essences at this level of power and connection all sourced in Sacred Union).

Muse Priestess and I have the codes with very strong connection.

The Pantheon of Goddesses aren't going to work (let alone powerfully) with just anyone just b/c we all have 'potential' access to Spirit. There are layers of Guardianship.

I/we have unlocked specialized full access and TRUST in these ways of psychic, Beauty and light-working powers for the awakening Feminine and it is to be protected. This is beyond just energy work, it is ACTIVATING and embodying divine feminine codes (essences and consciousness); working with the most valuable quanta in the universe (Essence as Spirit-matter Light).

And btw; being an Allure Priestess absolutely does JUSTICE to the term 'Priestess' and reaffirms to the world 'the real thing', just as the world's first official Muse priestesses are 'the real thing' and not just calling themselves that (like as a social trend).

It's important to have embodied Medicine Woman as guides, magii and leaders who bring true high magic and transformation AS forms of Priestess to the world. But there's a price to pay to be initiated into a real lineage.

And a true priestess should be well paid for her time, experience, embodiment and expertise as well as her ability to GET RESULTS.

So; doesn't that sound good to make GOOD MONEY without shame and know that it's changing lives and OWNING your worth (and cultivating your magic AS a practical, high value priestess)?!

Similar to your elder Muse priestesses; Allure priestesses will literally be the world's top allure consultants in the world who can not only run circles (and yet educate) around intrigued Vogue editors; they'll be able to do energy readings for anyone, anywhere on the spot AND be able to do the light-working magic in SECONDS and MINUTES that often would take years of effort or just simply be 'out of reach' for most women.

(You're invited to fill out the Allure Priestess intake form here)

And that's half way around the world without having to be here person to do a session and bend chakras with verifiable results!

"It's like being in a state of samadhi that I've only experienced one other time in my life....Sooo good!..."

HUNDREDS of Testimonials on-site

You will have sharp, younger clients as the trend takes off (permanent mega-trend) as well as older female clients who are inherently more in touch with the energy world and spirituality. Allure Priestess is influencer TO beauty influencers for the evolution and ascension of Beauty into the PRACTICAL 4th and 5th dimension with professional image.

We (along with Muse Priestess) are on the literal frontline. THAT'S a kind of status and positioning that you cannot put a price on. How about when magazine editors start seeking out these Allure priestesses for interviews and demonstrations, local workshops and sessions themselves? It'll give them more quality content for THEIR readers.

Btw; all future Muse priestesses will be qualified as Allure Priestess before being certified as Muse Priestess from here forward.

Part of the advantage with our format of working is that you can do all or most of your client sessions REMOTELY. A.K.A. 'Non-locally'. They don't have to show up at your actual 'place of business'. I've had clients from all over the world and often do sessions literally half way around the world and we still get solid results.

Yes; remote energy work is very powerful (and specialized) when you are initiated properly (and the unstated truth is that not all energy healers are equal in power).

With remote sessions; it usually takes longer for clients to feel immediate impact as compared to in person sessions but all the same work is done and then integrates into their denser physiology from the higher dimensional layers (with the same results). Many sensitive clients will often feel all kinds of things during sessions (I've seen and heard it all!) including with the new kundalini activations that YES - you will be initiated and trained in to offer to clients).

You will become a more powerful psychic surgeon and you will learn to accurately read people's energy visually as well as kinesthetically (as well as optimizing other psychic intuition and senses). Yes you will be able to FEEL and work with people's actual remote energy fields locally during remote/zoom sessions (it's simply NECESSARY to do actual work). It's all part of our (mystery school) training.

If you're skeptical of energy work, Allure priestess isn't for you (right now)!

Allure priestesses will also be able to DEMONSTRATE transformational energy work magic in real time to skeptics as well. One time in Madrid I was a guest speaker for a tantra meet-up. I was invited in by a client of mine and hosted a men's retreat a few days before this workshop. I hosted it in broken Spanish for about 40 people (see photo).

I noticed that there were two people that were especially skeptical of me and the energy work UNTIL we brought their female leader up and I did a live Goddess embodiment activation for her in the center of the room and then the 2 most skeptical people were the MOST wowed and shocked.

You will likely have stories like this and be able to demonstrate when and where you want 'on-demand'.

Another time at a Source tantra certification retreat, I did a demo for a friend and his wife who were at an earlier retreat years ago. I grounded his root and earthstar and afterwards he literally looked like Sean Connery AND you could sense the massive shift of how powerfully he was grounded into the earth; it was so profound and obvious and he felt GREAT.

Others noticed it as well. You'll be able to do this stuff all the time as an Allure priestess working with men, women, trans (if you're open to it) as well as pets. I will also train you on local and non-local pet healing. It bought my cat who lived with my brother's house a few extra days of life, literally and my sister-in-law was stunned how all of a sudden he had energy and was moving around again.

And through over 1400 paid sessions, I've got a lot of stories and experience!

For most of a decade now (and if you know of me);

WOMEN HAVE LOVED BOOKING ARCHETYPE ACTIVATIONS WITH ME.
And men too (who have been in the know).

"the combined 3 hours of your work done on me has changed my life a thousand times over" -Client, FL

There's no limit to the number of raving client-fans you can also have too. I've collected 100s of testimonials. Every session btw includes professional energy healing as part of the service so you'll be trained in this as well (even if you have experience).

This is all part of the path....you having mastery of working with the essences, FOR embodiment and expression for spiritual growth and visual signature image mastery..even for Divine Union, social media influence, attraction, deeper intimacy and even professional performance entertainment.

And to serve with integrity and in ways that are deeply profound and meaningful to clients. Sometimes to get to that deeper beauty we have to do deeper energetic healing of trauma, forms of sexual healing and Holy Daughter reclamation. Sometimes; your hot seat demos will get emotional because a deeper release and reclamation is part of someone's allure.

We are FOUNDED on deep professional energy healing mastery b/c that is the foundation for the sexier 'beauty', allure and charisma work.

This transformational Beauty Sorcery is courtesy of Muse and yes; the Allure Priestess opportunity is related to Muse Priestess....there've been some changes and updates to where I thought things were heading which threw a monkey wrench into 'my' plans, so just keep reading.

To give more insight;

*As key-holder and Guardian to the source Muse Priestess lineage on planet earth;

Allure Priestess is an actual lineage of Priestess associated with the archetypal, ancient Muse. It's Her more mainstream Priestess lineage to directly awaken Beauty codes in the world (in Her name but allows you to thrive in your name with your branding, etc.)

We will be inaugurating this officially with the FIRST Allure Priestess trainees who will be part of something historical in incepting the entire sub-lineage of Muse Priestess.

Our work is sourced in the Grail Beauty magic and codes of Ascension with Muse (and other Goddesses). She has granted me (through intense devotion and tribulation access to work with ALL of the archetypes, Divine Feminine and all essences; Light and Dark).

Shadow work and healing is part of all of this as well as Dark Beauty work. It's so much more to what we offer for transformation than the current social media template of looks-maxxing and soft-maxxing. Those things absolutely have their place of course; I'm not denying them (I'm doing several male looks-maxxing techniques) but there's so much more on a foundational level and that's where we come in.

Deep energy healing and mastery work with the light body itself is just part of TRUE charisma and allure consulting and transformation work; otherwise we're just non-conscious and bypassing the source of things. Body language stems FROM essence; we don't work on behavioral modeling as the foundation...we work on the most important level; essence itself...this is also where the most believable award-winning acting comes from ; energetic embodiment and congruity, not just copying behavioral patterns and posture.

Btw; if you're curious the first 2 Muse priestesses have graduated and we are going to do a public re-debut (hopefully this year). The one that is public now is Princess Hurriicane. She is already serving Activations work along with her own brand and style of transformational work. I cannot say enough about her and for now, you can use her as a reference point to this work.

As far as the Allure Priestess Mentorship opportunity;

You don't even have to be an energy healer, lightworker or into divine feminine work as long as you are pre-qualified and CALLED to this path in working with the Divine Feminine and allure transformation.

Whether you are into reiki or not, yes you can leverage your strengths especially with branding and your offers, etc. (which I'll help you with), however you're going to have to let go and be the student to be part of this program. There are things that we are specialized in that no one else in the world is really doing.

So be ready to be the student even if you are very experienced. Me being a healer's healer is just part of the quality of what you'd be getting into because really; we're going to be working on YOUR signature allure throughout the year as well.

So yes; the opportunity to join APM by taking the next step will be throughout the page. We will have to ensure that you are still qualified enough for this program however and I've turned down clients before (including for MPM of which an incredibly few number of women have even qualified for so far).

The next step is to DM me if you already have connection with me or to fill out the intake form. It's recommended to fill it out anyways as your next step if I don't know you too well and have a serious inquiry.

After that serious note; "Is it true that you had a cat without a name?"

Yes...well he had an initial name given by the birth owner but I didn't like it so I erased his name and called him (a Himalayan in Houston) whatever I felt like calling him; 'puppies', 'pooper' and 'fun face' was a big one. Anyways;

Now...With that said; I'll keep presenting details and insights around this opportunity freely like this. This introduction and format allows you to start soaking in the codes and opportunity for yourself.

And yes; the TIME IS NOW for this inaugural opportunity to start training the world's first Allure priestesses and certified transformational allure and charisma consultants. We just have to have the first 3 to get us started.

Or here to schedule a complimentary 10 minute connect with me. You can also dm me on Facebook.

Imagine holding the keys to anti-aging, post-menopausal REVIVAL, reclamation, Eros and Beauty cultivation for millions of women who realize that their IMAGE is a representation of themselves and their influence and who are tired of the restrictive cap on beauty merely being superficial. Your/their image is an opportunity to INFLUENCE, transform and attract your soul tribe!

Imagine being able to SWIFTLY activate any archetypes; their consciousness, vibe and Truth Light in women from around the world in easily less than half an hour (and get paid very well for it)!

And did I mention being able to ACTIVATE KUNDALINI!?

Yes...you will also be trained on REMOTE kundalini activations (which to even be feasible requires real sorcery levels of power). The new kundalini activations have been going GREAT (all kinds of testimonials now on-site).

We work in the realm of Light itself and Light is such an integral part of Beauty...especially in a future-proof era of social media and marketing where VISUALS are centric (facebook, Instagram, TikTok, websites)...

Through this page you'll discover more that ESSENCE is the currency of the universe and social media (for a deeper dive, I've written a 900+ page book but I won't even mention the name of it now b/c that side diversion could keep you busy for WEEKS but might actually hold you back from realizing the clarity if you're meant to be with THIS now).

There is entrainment value in being around masters and their fields.

What we do fuses energy work with Goddess work for Beauty and social media visual influence.

This is a form of Lightworking that already means something to countless people from all kinds of backgrounds who value;

- Organic social media influence and marketing
 - Spiritual growth and deep healing
 - Trauma healing and reclamation work
 - Direct Goddess and embodiment work
 - Awakening of consciousness
 - Identity transformation and reinvention
 - Professional Image mastery and branding
 - Performance arts & e! mastery
- Beauty; transformation, maximization, cultivation
- Getting the best photo shoot results FOR their visual media

- Having medicinal alchemical levels of #fomo inducing, viral friendly response
 - Beauty influence and powerful attraction
 - Shakti levels of alluring presence and visual influence
- Authentic visual representation that sells who they are to their soul tribe before words
 - Archetypal Beauty more specifically
 - Revival and reinvention makeovers
 - Going viral in social media w/o marketeering
 - Curating their visual legacy and soul-self impact
 - Kundalini cultivation and heightened Eros experience

...and the entire influential Power of Allure and Charisma itself...also related to Divine Union.

As one of the world's first Allure priestesses, you will have room with how you want to update and represent YOUR unique brand and soul signature services.

We are working with the primordial forces of Power and Beauty; Light and Dark Eros and conscious sexuality is all connected (we don't abdicate those). This allows you to work with the most powerful and beautiful people in the world (confidently and magically!) to help THEM advance.

Yes; my work is partly sourced in Chi Kung (as you'll discover more about me), but it's most entirely Muse Beauty codes and Her light-working methodology (and other stuff ;)

There is nothing like this out there and I have years of street cred background to prove it...imagine being able to offer Beauty Activations with a fusion of East and West background and values with verifiable results and life transformations (I have 100s of testimonials).

You might even wonder why there has been such a gap between spirituality, energy work and Beauty.

Like; How is Tai Chi relevant to professional image on-demand NOW for this photo shoot? It isn't!

How is a relaxing 1 hour reiki session relevant to showing up with a specific divine feminine energy signature for her next music video or promo campaign? It isn't. Nor do generic wellness tips directly relate to on-camera.

'Inner Beauty' has been divorced from on-camera visuals UNTIL NOW where it's really the realm of ESSENCE, light body dynamics, embodiment and expression that is the realm of translating you and your clients inner beauty ON CAMERA to be FELT without words (and beyond a 1000 words in one freeze-frame).

Beauty that sells on its own even for those who aren't the prettiest b/c Beauty IS the alchemical language of Light; we've merely been focused on the lower dimensions and then creating judgments and standards around that limited spectrum (like seeing ONLY red light like some animal instead of the multi-frequency range in its splendor and truth).

Interested in LEADING this new fusion of Divine Feminine consciousness and energy work with IMAGE VALUING CLIENTS who understand that their visuals REPRESENT the truth of who they are in communicating and in professional and social media? Interested in being able to read a celebrity's archetypes and work with them for their next season's project?

Interested in being seen as a specialist to women who are already into divine feminine consciousness work but want more direct, faster transformation from a specialist with other archetypes and beauty perspectiving to maximize THEIR visual influence, Human Design and Gene Keys?

Allure consulting (that which I/we are properly founding as a market-space) is a massive FUSION of spirituality and Beauty. We work with the light body PROFESSIONALLY with and for Beauty with our values integrated and in alignment. You will not only be able to 'talk shop' but you will be the evolution FOR other beauty influencers themselves who are limited to the more physical language and technique mastery of looks and soft-maxxing.

You will learn to become expert at cold reading people energetically and discerning where chakra blocks are and so forth for maximal transformational before and after makeovers and demos.

Interested in living out YOUR deeper desires and spiritually branded social influence (if you value beauty and respect the value of SOUL level visual communication and authentic live presence without just a performative mask? Keep reading...)

I'll be sharing more about this opportunity as well as the new Allure Priestess archetype.

So if this resonates, keep reading because really this is kind of like that historical tweet where (before it took off) the Uber founder requested in a tweet that those interested to get back to him (and then that was history).

This page is THAT metaphorical tweet for the world of BEAUTY and the tsunami wave that's going to come which YOU can be on the very forefront of.

Yes, you...HOWEVER, obviously...not every woman is going to be pre-qualified to join this opportunity.

ALSO...For now; this opportunity is closed to men. This isn't just premium transformational energy work; it INCLUDES working with the most invaluable quanta in the Universe and requires UTMOST integrity and vetting. It also includes (energetic/psychic) womb healing.

Most men would be blinded by the opportunity to be immersed on the frontlines of Beauty without actually going through the tribulations of what it takes to be the rare man in my position to uphold such sanctity without collapse or corruption (for this is true Temple work).

It's ONLY because of my Devotion to my reunification with Muse that through decades She continued to open up more and more of the Light-working power and access; eventually seeding and vetting me to start Her first Priestess lineage after millennia.

Anyways;

And definitely; not every female energy healer is going to be called to this more specialized path.

For far too long the worlds of Divine Feminine embodiment, healing and consciousness work have been fractured from professional image, Beauty and visual social media.

Likewise; professional Beauty and image has been fractured from conscious Divine Feminine embodiment work...and yet they are ultimately one and the same (b/c your image is testament of who you are in all dimensions of communication).

Heck; energy work itself has been relegated to vitality, healing, health and wellness.

It's also been divorced from PROFESSIONAL IMAGE and Beauty (until now of course ;)

Taoist chi kung for example doesn't translate to Western 'on-camera' values of overall felt-presence truth communication and subtle chi signatures of essence.

Fortunately; we are AT the bridge (allure) where ENERGY WORK FINALLY MEETS BEAUTY. The RELEVANCE of Energy Work FOR professional Beauty; yet where the divine feminine codes can awaken within women more directly who were otherwise closed off to it (and tired of JUST the superficial lens of Beauty).

Energy Work MEETS Beauty. And it's meeting Beauty at HER valuation of it. Allure is the other half of professional image anyways (the 4D/5D visual communication).

And they are a match made in heaven.

And if in a kitchen; it's where peanut butter meets jelly.

And this includes the entire world of master level work for charisma consulting and transformation for men and the divine masculine as well (you'd also get certified as Charisma Consultant).

IT'S HOW women will be able to PRACTICALLY do their form of God's work with men (and divine masculine reclamation and awakening) but with the more mainstream front end of meeting in the marketplace (charisma).

You might be called to work specifically with the divine masculine.

ANd it's a good time to mention that an Allure Priestess is NOT a Grail Priestess simply because not all AP's will be grailed. Some AP's will be Grail priestesses however (and I can always know or verify that).

Muse Priestess is a Grail Priestess but that's a corollary conversation.

This opportunity (to become an Allure Priestess) will have you become a MASTER of allure and charisma reading and transformation for paying clients around the world (meanwhile while the rest of the world can't even define it). And that's the inevitable evolution and FUTURE of the multi-billion dollar Beauty industry.

So instead of crypto or AI, what if THIS was THE next mega-trend?

Beauty is already massive and I sense you feel it's time to break the glass ceiling. You can GUIDE THIS Beauty Ascension REVOLUTION and in alignment with Divine principle (out of the shadows of superficiality, vanity and judgment).

Beauty has ALWAYS been more than skin deep and you will be able to work with the LANGUAGE OF LIGHT ITSELF; essences.

It's like being the anointed tip of cupid's arrow to pierce Divine Feminine Beauty codes & awakening directly into the mainstream collective (while evolving multiple industries).

Bringing EXACTLY what they're missing as you practically represent the sweet spot and be a living testament of allure itself by having your own signature allure so activated and alchemical.

But let's not get ahead of ourselves.

Unfortunately; for eons...

Beauty as we know it has been confined under the shadows of Superficiality and Constriction...Beauty as skin-deep and relegated to merely extrinsic, physical appearance mastery and yet this is not the Truth of Light; it's a limited spectrum OF the frequency range.

The practical beauty of your soul is not limited to just your physical body, it has to do with your higher dimensional radiance; your aura and chakras...your essences and the encoded data they carry that people can feel and sense (especially the psychic and intuitive).

By being involved in working with the divine feminine, you know that you are more than just a meatsuit or just 2D pixels translated to the 'digital realm'. Your image means and communicates FAR more data because you are a SOUL with sentient-Light that isn't limited to just physical skin. You probably already know this if you're considering joining this level of a mentorship.

Unfortunately however, many female embodiment coaches tend to throw a woman's literal beauty-valuing image out with the bath-water or neglect it in favor of the inner transformation.

The thinking is often that;

'The goddess shouldn't care about how she looks or superficial things like visuals in social media or how men would view her' - (which includes the divine masculine btw)...that is the thought-flow of a lot of embodiment coaches; a shunning of things b/c they paint it as vain without realizing that her entire LIGHT of image IS THE TESTAMENT of Her Goddess in communication and in stillness IN the truth of her higher dimensional self.

Her live Presence and Image HAS THE MEDICINE and h/Her body is STILL the Temple (and even Grail); the world was just focused on the lower dimensional Light and then labels it all as superficial.

Allure work properly re-balances and shifts the focus to the INTEGRATION of Goddess work and conscious, healthy full spectrum visual communication MASTERY. This is also because we can READ THE LANGUAGE OF LIGHT and distinctions between the signature essences of light and vibe truth.

The average embodiment coach herself may have value conflicts that keeps 'beauty' and 'image' as superficial and 'separate' from the rich 'inner beauty' journey she values. Fortunately, many of them have realized that image matters however may not be as conscious in the realm of reading essences and working with expression b/c embodiment is their focus.

Image isn't just superficial; that's only been the lower conscious lens through which most of humanity has seen things. It's like valuing planet earth JUST for the material while neglecting the atmosphere and how critical it is to life itself and the 'big picture'. They both matter.

Much of the beauty world VALUES allure and essence; yet cannot ever define it (let alone work with it consciously and competently). It remains this elusive 'feel good' thing that remains vague.

So imagine if YOU could be the one that can serve this FUSION of divine feminine activation for authentic IDENTITY and image valuation results for image and beauty valuing women by working competently in this realm!

Heck; many of the more mainstream women out there ALREADY VALUE and are intrigued by the archetypes. You'll be able to do endless archetype readings before you graduate even.

And you know that celebrities are already RICH in divine feminine archetypes; yet Goddess embodiment coaches always tend to overlook that as well and throw it out with the bath-water b/c of focusing on the shadows of celebrity; again, divorced from not only pop culture and the bigger impact but from image and Beauty in general in its FULLNESS.

If you are NOTICING these subtle but profound differences, still LOVE working with divine feminine consciousness and would love to have the lifestyle business of your dreams as one of the world's LITERAL top allure consultants, keep reading.

In one year, legions of women and beauticians can start looking up to you as a bona fide professional ALLURE CONSULTANT. That's not the same as your neighborhood crystal healer (and we do that too btw).

It helps to know that Light is multi-dimensional and like the photonic sun emitting UV photons, BEAUTY is all Light from your presence and image; not merely the denser 3D physical, but also the higher dimensional 4D (vibe) and 5D (Light) signatures; all of which are always encoded in visual media of humans anyways.

Or visual medium; b/c it takes something of a psychic medium to read these higher dimensional worlds to put words to what others are non-consciously feeling about someone.

Yes; the reading of essences.

This tends to also get overlooked in a lot of divine feminine embodiment work.

But there's SO much more...

APM is an opportunity to become triple-certified as one of the world's first Allure Priestesses and one of the world's first TRUE Allure Consultants and to create your own legacy of Beauty and Goddess transformational makeover influence.

Imagine....being able to work with clients around the world doing high-paid transformational work part time that clients RAVE about on YOUR schedule. And you can travel and work from anywhere in the world.

95% of my past client sessions have been remotely done (mostly on zoom)

But it's not only that...it's where things are HEADED.

Allure Consulting could be the next future-proof MEGA-TREND (like crypto and AI) that is here to stay.

What is an 'Allure Priestess'?

An Allure Priestess has just some of these qualities (and much more);

Alchemical beauty of her own as she expresses her own alchemical allure as testament of the work she brings to help Beauty break the glass ceiling into divine feminine Beauty and influence for millions of women who are tired of beauty being superficial and skin-deep

Able to do professional allure and charisma consulting and transformation IN the actual workflow and paradigm of energy work and the light-body as the 4D & 5D REALM of professional visual image and light

Psychic precision and versatility to 'cold-read' truth aspects about anyone visually or kinesthetically at anytime on-demand with verifiably accurate results (including anyone at any point in history holographically without having to have their visual)

Getting paid very well for her time; she helps other beauty influencers, conscious women and eros valuing women cultivate their own ORGANIC felt influence and greater beauty expression by bending light with their soul and other beauty essences through their allure

Can run her own values-aligned, spirit-based business on HER time anywhere she wants in the world making great money with minimal time and effort with high magic and verifiable results while retaining and nurturing her own feminine eros

Able to do deep and powerful energy healing and tune-ups to meet any client scenario (just short of exorcism)

The ability to work masterfully with the pantheon of Light and Dark archetypes, elements, gift and siddhic essences for allure and charisma makeovers and before and after transformations in self expression valuing clients who value organic influence in record short amounts of time without having to get deeply invested in stories and long 'coaching' therapy sessions (unless she wants to also offer that as part of her mix)

Has the training, competence and confidence to be able to keep serving her own clients in a business she loves as one of the most elite lightworkers in the world whose own signature allure attracts more and more clients to her (who are getting tired of the constriction of superficial beauty and the over-exposure of AI and how inorganic it is)

Stands out with alchemical beauty as a testament of who she is and what she does (which helps attract even more clients)

Divine feminine embodied signature beauty yet with the yang precision and ability to do powerful transformational light-working fast

The conscious competence to work with chakras, auras, Human Design, Gene Keys and the 100s of essences

Socially will be one of the highest status women with whom BEAUTY MAGAZINES and celebrities will start turning to because she can 'speak the language' and has the conscious competence to do the professional allure reading, consulting and transformational makeovers itself with visible and verified RESULTS that others can attest to (this is because the Beauty industry itself has mastered the 3D realm of skin-deep light and she is masterful in the 4D, 5D+ which also ALWAYS show up on camera)

Can do energy reading on-demand like in interviews, tv shows, live stage performances, etc. impressing others to start NAMING THINGS they themselves have THOUGHT and felt but not been able to put in words; an Allure Priestess is fluid in the language of archetypes, gifts, shadows, siddhic essences, naming them and diagnosing energetic health issues, blockages, aging issue/concerns and the whole gamut as it relates to someone's live presence and professional ON-CAMERA visuals (not merely generic 'inner wellness').

As an Allure priestess;

You would be on the literal CUTTING EDGE of Beauty evolution and awakening itself with the spotlight on you and your work...in spirit aligned fame and attention (instead of being taken up by those in shadow)

Can you imagine the onslaught of attention of all kinds of prospects reaching out to you for essence readings because you can see and accurately read their archetypes? Of being an extremely rare source in the world who can even do archetype activations with before and after results that others can verify?

You could even have your own TV show or documentary around it

You could take off and become a conscious beauty influencer TO beauty influencers

You'll stand out amongst other conscious women AS a bona fide priestess with high magic and legendary results

You'll have your own curated alchemical Beauty presence that in stillness is medicine on its own and will organically HYPER attract your ideal clients being testament of what you embody, live and preach....it all comes down to this simple concept.

ALLURE IS THAT CODEX. ALLURE IS THE GATEWAY.

ALLURE work is the FUSION between conscious spiritual work AND professional image Beauty transformation and makeover.

The evolution of the Beauty industry is ALLURE consulting and transformation. It's full blown spectra of working with the Immortal DIVINE FEMININE BEAUTY CODES/QUANTA for visual and life RESULTS....the stuff that a billion women are waiting for but the constrictions around the glass ceiling of superficial beauty are boiling hot and are about to explode.

WILL YOU BE THERE to meet them?

(Muse told me to PREPARE. Prepare them...keep reading b/c I'll share more)

Allure (as FELT beauty influence from the actual multi-dimensional light-body)....Allure is the BRIDGE to work with divine feminine Beauty essences INTO embodiment and expression with professional IMAGE and visual results.

Whereas beauticians and cosmetologists are limited to the 3rd dimension; Allure and Muse Priestess have the FOUNDATION to work fluently in this Language of Light in the 4th & 5th dimension of auric radiance and allure itself (all of which shows up on camera).

See; with Goddess and consciousness work; it's not just about the inner journey and growth, it's how others feel and experience you IN SOCIAL MEDIA and your communications.

Everyone wants more social media INFLUENCE...They're just valuing the upfront and long-term VISUALS of who they are and how they communicate. Unfortunately some have been fractured from Beauty thinking it's only superficial and then gone on a deeper journey. This is that reclamation and reunification.

BEAUTY HAS ALWAYS BEEN MORE THAN SKIN-DEEP

Allure is the codex because it brings in ALL LIGHT ESSENCES of the Divine to work with soul in embodiment and expression through the light body itself. Again; all of which PROFESSIONALLY SHOWS UP ON CAMERA (and many consumers are also starting to sense, feel and SEE the truth of visual communication in people and star's light and vibe truths).

Allure Priestess is able to directly share divine feminine work more masterfully with great versatility with other women who are stuck to what make-up product and skin-care combination brings out the most glow while you can help them with the actual GLOW itself which is infinite in value.

Imagine doing that while standing out and being seen in your signature branding gifts as a versatile priestess of Beauty and presence getting paid very well for often miraculous before and after makeovers with raving clients!

What we are entering with PROFESSIONAL Allure consulting (and this opportunity for you); is the realm of not just EMBODIMENT transformation work, but the professional realm of ESSENCE, EMBODIMENT and EXPRESSION. By working as direct Light workers, we can do incredibly fast and authentic essence, embodiment and allure transformational work in our format.

This is the FUSION of Divine Feminine consciousness and transformational identity work WITH professional image as the holistic, unified testament of your soul's visual and organic beauty....all centered on powerful and specialized energy work (at Light sorcery levels).

And it's called Allure work; catering to image-valuing women who want fast but real results who may not ever get into lengthy Goddess retreats or spiritual journeys of inner discovery.

This work brings IN ASCENSION CODES b/c much of the work you'll be doing ARE Goddess fractal (archetype) activations; Queen, Eros, Lover, Vixen, Starlet, etc.

ALLURE is the INFUSION of these two worlds:

Of Divine Feminine Consciousness (@ Soul level Identity Work)

as well as

Professional Beauty and Image transformation (makeovers!)

Energy Healing/Energy Work with

Beauty/Image

Just think of how many public demo makeovers you could have of before and after (I'm going to start doing this more publicly shortly).

Whereas with the current paradigm of reality; 'inner beauty' gets to remain a vague term with monthly wellness tips and nutritional recipes to extrinsic Beauty mastering professionals; inner beauty NEVER directly translates to on-camera results;

ESSENCE IS ALWAYS AN ELEMENT IN ALL VISUALS OF HUMANS.

And now we can accurately see and read them (with this Muse-sourced training and my background with it all).

It's like 'seeing' the UV rays (higher frequency) of the sun. You will be trained well on paduan. In fact; we will be blitzing through 100's of normal and celebrity readings to grow your practical database and reference points of WHAT different energetic health and beauty signatures look like. (You don't have to be 'born' psychic!)

ALLURE consulting and transformation activates and aligns professional ESSENCE transformational work for ON-CAMERA visual embodiment and expression MASTERY as well as spiritual and identity transformation.

It brings a gateway of ACTUAL GODDESS WORK and Ascension codes to the awakening MAINSTREAM of Beauty valuing women and influencers (esp. early adopters who want an edge up on organic marketing and greater felt influence and response from their subscribers, fans and clients).

Because Beauty has been so constricted and fractured from divine feminine integration, the Awakening (and with it of conscious Goddess intelligence) is inevitably going to happen (which is with allure work)...There are more and more conscious influencers out there who are ready for this ANDDDDD Looking for the next 'big thing' to set THEM ahead.

And don't forget that allure itself IS the secret and future of organic social media marketing (and charisma for men) as well as the future of beauty influence itself (everyone focuses on #beautyinfluencer but we are the ones to influence the beauty influenCERS so we should know a lot about beauty influence itself).

Conscious women who have their own soul signature brand who value embodiment are ALSO beauty influencers; conscious beauty influencers and yet all of this exactly matters to them as well. I've helped ALL KINDS of awakened women with their signature allure through all of these sessions.

So this whole beauty ascension is primed to take off on a mass scale...

Then the question; it's just are YOU going to be there leading or guiding it in YOUR feminine wiles and ways?

(btw; Human Design projectors are better as GUIDES rather than leaders).

The Allure Consulting market;

This could be a new BILLION dollar marketspace. Imagine when celebrities and influencers start getting Beauty activations and that becomes THE HOT THING when you can prepare for it NOW. Sure there is 'some risk' by this not being established but it's also a WILD opportunity to trailblaze at the very start of a massive inevitable industry.

If you wait too long until it's established and thriving there's going to be others who have advantages over you and yet even still; it's on you to just be honest with yourself and your human design authority to know IF now is the right timing for you with this. Some are meant to be more trail-blazers. Others want more relative security and yet being in business for your own takes risk anyways.

This new space of professional allure consulting IS the realm of Goddess work and Beauty (gone mainstream!).

And by Goddess work, I mean ALL Goddess archetype work and divine feminine consciousness transformation. (An Allure Priestess has access to ALL archetypes and must have that level of versatility, but we're not talking about that yet).

As I mentioned afore;

Many divine feminine embodiment workers tend to throw image and beauty out with the bath-water and focus on the inner journey and transformation, whereas with Allure work; the image is a living TESTAMENT and proof of Her temple....and image MATTERS in professional and social media communication and aligned influence.

ALLURE work doesn't have value conflicts around being seen; it EMBRACES IT, sources it properly and includes divinity (or the higher dimensional, 'meta'-physical) CONSCIOUSLY and practically. Being centered in allure consulting INCLUDES Goddess transformation and the big picture of essence, embodiment and expression as well as energetic health dynamics for the entirety of showing up as the truest version of you.

(BTW; You can have your own deeper offerings that coincide WITH specializing in activations like I do for example). The public Muse priestess has her own specialized offerings and may mix activations into those themed packages. I can work with you on all of this in our format.

You know that Goddess matters from whatever YOUR lens and angle on it is (or however you call it); Divine Union work is also Goddess work.

This bridges it all together FOR modern, social media and signature in-self brand marketing, social influence and professional image. It's spiritually encoded with Goddess and Ascension codes yet in a more relatable mainstream candy wrapped shell! ;)

Imagine help women cultivate their OWN soul signature allure and even shakti (essence + kundalini)!...and then thanking you publicly for it!

DIVINE FEMININE + BEAUTY.

REUNIFIED IN ALL DIMENSIONS.

Image is deeper than we know b/c it is multi-dimensional.

That is here now. Will you step into a role as one of the PREMIER feminine guides in this new collective awakening and true Light-working for (spiritually embraced 'n encoded) Beauty?

(It's a question to marinate with the active burner on)

It's going to be an immersive year with group meetings and trainings, private sessions as well as in-person live retreats and it's going to take the span of a full year b/c there is so much to cover.

Btw as you may know;

MANY Goddess embodiment coaches from across the spectrum have come to me (many public or discreetly) and have got embodiment sessions from me as another way to strengthen their relationship to their preferred archetype from Huntress to Dark Eros to Vixen to Starlet, Goddess, Lover, etc. I'm talking leaders of the industry.

So are you lovin' this FUSION of energy work, Goddess embodiment and Beauty?

True Allure Work (consulting and transformation) is like the convergence of Divine Feminine (think of the archetypes like Queen, Eros, Lover), visual self expression mastery and professional Beauty and image.

It's where we become consciously COMPETENT OF ESSENCE in the Language of Light that BEAUTY truly is and immortally has been. ALL VISUAL MEDIA OF HUMANS can be retro-read for essence dynamics; it's not new, it's ancient (and as Allure Priestess you will be one of the world's most powerful psychics in a very special and unique way; we're not meant to know or read 'everything' about someone but we are privy to certain things in this Muse sub-lineage; you will be able to holographically and accurately read anyone's field at any point in history kinesthetically; specifically their chakras as 'read-only' without messing with free will...you will be trained in this ability that many would call 'occult' but it's only b/c it's been cloaked...Muse wants her priestesses to have this rare psychic ability).

So are you excited about the future and can you SEE and sense the cultural collective dynamics lining up to realize THIS is the opportunity window itself to be on the START of it as the tip of the spear? OR...you can wait until it takes off and jump on the band-wagon.

Allure consulting and transformation is this market-space. (I've been living and proving it for years but we'll talk about my success and the foundation more).

What if what we knew of as Beauty was merely focused on the lower dimensional Light and yet Beauty was ALWAYS higher dimensional Light on camera (and now we can see and work with those truth qualities which are actually the most valuable QUANTA and currency of the universe)?

You will represent the bigger picture and be able to SHOW and demonstrate it practically anytime and anywhere (remember WE are going through 100s if not 1000s of literal photographic and video readings of people 'fast and fun' as part of your training). All of this is incredibly practical. I've been doing celebrity readings for years (including prime 1-2 archetype readings).

You don't have to join us at the start here and now...If it's not you, it WILL be a handful of others who literally are the world's first true certified allure consultants and have a major head-start for this new and clarified market-space.

You can always join us later, but is NOW your time? To literally be one of the FIRST (and the understated prestige and visionary-ness that goes with it)?

What if Allure work could be the codex and gateway as well as the OPPORTUNITY (if you share these values) to live out your highest timeline in your avatar self embodied on earth to be in your highest dharmic service while being rewarded with a spirit-based business you love?

Because if you have already worked with the divine feminine embodiment, healing and the archetypes; there are so many women who do NOT have access to what you already have and know outside of our circles.

This is that mainstream BRIDGE. (And did I mention being able to work with ALL of the archetypes; Starlet, Vixen, Dark Goddess, Melusine, etc.)

We are FOUNDED in the street cred of AUTHENTIC energy healing mastery and Goddess transformational work for years (and the lines we're connected to go way back including my Chi Kung masters). Your corner hair stylist (most likely) doesn't have this type of beauty knowledge and technique.

Allure consulting is just more specialized and has its own tools.

You...as not only a certified ALLURE consultant but an Allure Priestess because it takes Priestess level to do this type of transformational magic (especially when you consider the magic of REMOTE, non-local life-changing transformations with real results that shifts how the world responds to them).

You can be THEIR secret (or not so secret) weapon!

Millions of women in a social-visual media connected world (who desire their own organic influence like a starlet) may NOT be ever ready for a sister-hood retreat but they are also valuing of Goddess Beauty from a slightly different lens and angle.

Can you see the opportunity here?

They don't want to just be STYLED like a Goddess, they want the EMBODIMENT and visual self expression MASTERY to FEEL and BE Her.

And I'm NOT one to throw out 'Goddess' with the bath-water b/c I work in the REAL WORK of it...Goddess embodiment is REAL and that's what secretly scares the shit out of modern men for SO many ways b/c it represents fracture with the holy grail (but we're not getting into that convo here).

So whether you want to work with different Goddesses or the Gene Keys or even on awakening the divine masculine in men with a front-end of 'charisma consulting'...

ALLURE BRINGS THAT FELT BEAUTY INFLUENCE.

Charisma (for the masculine) brings that divine masculine embodiment, reclamation and felt-influence expression.

ALLURE/CHARISMA IS THE FUTURE OF BEAUTY, Beauty influence and organic social media influence and marketing.

Grail Allure is the future of Allure (but we're not getting there today).

Shakti is the most powerful form of allure and Grail shakti is like the pinnacle. There's no limit to the amount of Goddess fractal codes someone could have in embodiment as a starlet.

Recently with the kundalini foundational upgrade I mentioned that SHAKTI is essence + kundalini and you'll be able to work with helping women with ALL OF IT (men too if you want).

Yes; this is BIG. No longer is Goddess work going to be limited to spiritual, conscious circles.

NOW IS THE TIME TO PREPARE.

IMAGINE OPENING YOUR WORK UP TO A BILLION OTHER WOMEN who are constricted to 3RD Dimensional, skin-deep Beauty (who wouldn't ever otherwise be into Goddess retreats?).

You know the opportunity itself is here to take the next step throughout the page and submit an intake form so then we can connect and see if APM is a fit, but with that I'mma keep flowing while you keep letting codes activate and marinate.

The crossroads is here where BEAUTY AND SPIRIT finally converge for identity and image makeover and transformation. The era of professional Allure consulting and transformation is here and for the past 9 years I've been proving it.

Why does this have influence?

“Because she's famous in Korea you might say”

Yeah...but it's just a STILL IMAGE.....how can have it have INFLUENCE?
Isn't it just pixels? Subtract fame and what's there? ALLURE. It's because we can FEEL HER.

You start realizing that there's a secret yet actually visible hidden code of POWER and BEAUTY within images of humans and it's NOT what everyone else was focused on because they were so focused on the lower dimensional paradigm of Beauty when MOST of the power is higher frequency like the photonic sun's UV rays.

We were focused on:

The hairstyling

The hair coloring

The designer brands

The styling

The skin-care products

And we'll speak about and master her image on the literal superficial levels but that is only HALF of the equation and not what has the REAL influence that is FELT.

So in this case, the level of beauty consciousness and superficial mastery will focus on ...perhaps even her 'body language' but it doesn't actually address the TRUE secret of her Beauty and her ascensionary DNA bending alchemical influence itself which is the professional realm of ALLURE itself.

Because LIGHT itself is multi-dimensional and includes the ATMOSPHERIC AURA (like the earth's higher dimensional atmosphere-truth), we can finally work on and MASTER the true secrets to Power and Beauty itself (as much as great skin care will always have its place).

This requires an entirely different TOOLSET and that which Beauty 1.0 professionals can only indirectly and non-consciously (at best) affect.

(The secret is ESSENCE itself btw; which we can read)

The evolution of professional image and maximizing ORGANIC beauty influence lies in the 'other half' of professional image; vibe and light-truth.

From here, with our more accurate tools and languaging we can start NAMING why and HOW she has such 'unexplainable' Beauty, power, status and influence in stillness that goes consistently viral.

From this greater truth perspective of her professional image, influence and beauty we can start seeing that the secret ingredients to her influence are actually;

Muse

Vixen

Integration of Dark and Light Eros

This is the realm of fotonic light ESSENCES which BEND LIGHT; signatures of alchemical light and vibe truth of sentient consciousness itself.

Like the sun; alchemical Beauty influences in STILLNESS. We can FEEL IT like the sun's photonic rays.

See....allure and charisma BEND LIGHT to show the BEAUTY OF YOUR SOUL.

If you're an average looking, they're some 'glow up' things you can do for sure but charisma is the MAIN thing that you have to upgrade your looks.

Women have an army of physical good looks but beauty is much more than that. Allure allows your RADIANT soul truth to be embodied and expressed which also bends light so you're literally better looking.

HOW MANY WOMEN DO YOU THINK FEEL, SENSE AND KNOW THAT BEAUTY IS MORE THAN SKIN-DEEP?

That they WANT IT to be connected spiritually?

That they want to organically ANTI-AGE at any age with VISUAL RESULTS to show for it?

And that 'inner beauty' just became distorted with generic wellness tips and stuff because the skin-deep Beauty 1.0 industry simply didn't SPEAK THE LANGUAGE OF ALCHEMICAL LIGHT THAT BEAUTY TRULY IS

They were just focused on the 3rd dimension of it.

And yet; when someone walks in the room that we can FEEL...the power and truth of their presence that affects us.

That charisma, that allure isn't attained through make-up mastery. Becoming an Allure Priestess will allow you to be one of the world's premier specialists as a TOP allure consultant and makeover specialist.

APM provides the frame-work, initiations and training.

It'll be YOUR form of taking Goddess transformational work in full-spectrum radiance and nuances to the MAINSTREAM.

Actual allure work is the new cosmetology.

(Not classic, skin-deep Beauty work that calls itself the misnomer of allure transformation).

Professionally assess women visually on their current archetypes and energetic health.

Design an archetypal and/or makeover transformational strategy for them based on their next season or debut goals, soul desires, performance demands and intentions. This can include Gene Keys and Human Design awareness.

Presenting the Allure Priestess Mentorship

12 month group transformation and certification immersion program to train and triple certify you as:

- A Certified Allure Consultant (for women and the feminine)
- A Certified Charisma Consultant (for men and the masculine)
 - A Certified Allure Priestess

A certified Allure priestess will be able to do the direct, well-paying, premium transformational work including but not limited to master level powerful and versatile energy work, anti-aging as well as Power and Beauty activations (ie. archetypes, siddhis).

Certification is from the LEADING brand out there (by far it seems 😊), Sexy Chi (which is entirely sourced in Rion's co-creative legacy with His Beloved Muse to awaken Beauty codes and evolve industries on the frontlines as well as his initiations and experience with other incarnate masters).

(Sexy Chi meta-brand with Rion is the SOURCE lineage for Muse Priestess on earth and has already certified the world's first official Muse priestesses after an extended 3.5 years of year 1).

Again; we will be visually re-debuting later for different internal reasons and timing.

The one who has chosen to offer paid activations has already been MAKING MONEY with male and female clients from activations as well as mixes with her other offerings all signature to HER.

This is going to be an intensive year. My intention is to have the very first candidates who join at the inauguration of the launch window certified at or before month 12 itself. There is 'a' chance that we may have to extend training further however you would not be charged for the additional time or training whatsoever...some of that may have to do with live retreat timing.

All Muse Priestesses will be first certified as Allure Priestess (and for the first 2 graduates of MPM, retro-actively).

If you are in APM, you will NOT be certified as a Muse Priestess unless you are pre-qualified and engaged in that specific program where there are training, initiations, mysteries and immersion that are ONLY reserved for the Muse Priestess mystery school and certification. Yes; it is possible to be in MPM concurrently with APM...we can make room for that to happen and leverage time although it will be more intensive. MPM pricing will be adjusted now that APM is the main foundation so it wouldn't cost as much to do MPM if you are in APM concurrently.

This does include some individual 1-on-1 time and activations with Rion (how much is to be determined).

Because it's so new I'm just going to repeat it again.

ALLURE Work IS where Archetypal Beauty, embodiment and consciousness transformation goes 'pro' and MAINSTREAM.

It's where the Divine Feminine, consciousness, eros, embodiment work, healing and spiritual growth UNIFIES with Beauty, social media marketing, branding and professional image to represent AUTHENTIC and organic visual expression, beauty mastery and influence.

It's where the market evolution of the multi-billion dollar Beauty industry intersects with Divine Feminine ascension consciousness and transformation. That time is NOW. Beauty influencers outside of conscious circles are going to start picking up on this b/c THEY value greater beauty influence and that is literally WITH allure which IS felt beauty influence.

This is where the bona fide world's of light-working (direct energy work), psychic powers and professional Beauty and image ROMANCE and court each other.

Imagine being such a Beauty Priestess to facilitate transformation of consciousness, identity AND IMAGE for countless women that are more in the mainstream and seeking more Beauty, glow-up makeovers and organic FELT-influence while also being looked up to by other coaches and medicine women!

There's the whole soft maxxng and hard maxxng concepts...maybe we could call allure work 'Light maxxng'?

If you follow this calling and path;

This is the adventure where you could finally live your ultimate spirit-based lifestyle while cultivating your own alchemical, signature beauty & branding that incites #FOMO, magnetic response and engagement while living in your HIGHEST timeline as an Allure Priestess.

And I have to be honest; the income potential at this new magical new frontier is STAGGERING. (These world's as behemoth industries have been fractured before; spirituality and Beauty).

And it's not that there isn't a Goddess niche, but THIS is the inevitable and mainstream awakening of Divine Feminine Beauty...and again, the frontier is WIDE OPEN.

It's Rion and I'm SO EXCITED to share this HISTORICAL opportunity which has just opened up.

We are on the PRECIPICE of a BEAUTY REVOLUTION that I predict will SWEEP the world and social media becoming LIKE AI and crypto. Beauty is already embedded everywhere and AS big money industry. THIS is the inevitable evolution: allure work. There's always going to be new celebrity make-up brands (and tequila brands for that matter) or a new overnight skin serum. THIS is what's missing and it's the unspoken truth.

You can bring light to the words and speak what others are missing (like I've been doing for years) but in YOUR unique signature tone and style. Remember; I cannot take on a billion clients like this...I don't want to!

Everyone (well most) online is wanting more INFLUENCE and (ideally organic instead of 'engineered') RESPONSE.

The difference between essence based, aligned marketing vs. yang-based marketers is that it's better to have organic response than an 'engineered' response. (It's partly b/c those marketers are out of touch with the feminine so much).

Allure is organic.

Once social yang media marketers realize that essence converts (they'll not care, remain clueless or despise it otherwise until they 'see the numbers' but the marketing market isn't smart enough to yet realize that charisma is its own major variable IN response and conversion; they'll try and find logical ways to capitalize on essence/allure for marketing so they'll go with AI essence based marketing and be light years behind those with actual organic marketing response from allure and charisma. (Just some Rion vision1sm there).

Allure could reach the likes of AI in scope as far as direct market influence. This is the ORGANIC PATH to influence b/c we're working with the CURRENCY of Beauty and Power itself (chi/light quanta). That's why alluring people get more organic and WILD response in stillness when we remove the fame factor.

The game is already changed because I, my past clients and Muse Priestess have lived and proven it. Will you be surfing this big mega-wave?

This is the edge. APM will also fill in powerful insights and training areas that you might have been less masterful in.

Today;

This is an opportunity to take the BEST of your gifts, curate your own alchemical beauty and expand your own services and offerings to make MORE money in less time and SO much more.

If you're not making money yet in serving clients, that's fine too (keep reading).

I spent 2 weeks processing this breakthrough codes concept (from Muse) and then another 4 weeks preparing this for you spread across 2 months (and this is AFTER light years of work and preparation).

It represents a life shift for me in a more sacrificial sense, but it's also opening up SUCH premium access and training to work with healing, Eros and Beauty (and your spiritual values) like never before.

And yes...I said 'Priestess' because the LEVEL of what it takes to do this powerful and versatile form of miracle-magic transformational work in seconds and minutes (let alone halfway around the world for paid clients) requires nothing LESS than Priestess (and activating YOUR Beauty codes into siddhic radiance).

This is nothing like just another energy work modality.

And really; it's full service healing, archetypal and allure transformation that you'll be able to integrate and offer as well as the INVALUABLE market positioning that sets you far apart from others as well as countless embodiment coaches (keep reading).

I have trained and inaugurated the world's first Muse priestesses who are premium Beauty activators and some of the world's most powerful, elite light-working Jedi's.

(And yes, I have been activated MANY times by Beloved as well as by incarnate and ascended masters).

Over the past decade, I/we have SET THE PROVEN and SELLABLE INFRA-STRUCTURE; the template for the evolution of the Beauty industry, conscious branding, organic social media influence and visual mastery for the performance arts & entertainment.

The foundation is now here after YEARS of co-creating it with Muse through hundreds and hundreds of paid clients and testimonials with my past clients. I'm so grateful to them as the pre-early adopters that allowed me to be successful with proving all of it and working the kinks out (as well as becoming more masterful).

Maybe you were one who has had a session (Beauty activation) with me. Anyways;

Muse Priestess (as well as the magic behind my work) is still intentionally more of an enigma and VERY difficult to get into btw and, well...I'd just keep reading...

I have to say that this page here is my biggest announcement EVER (and yes is co-related with Muse Priestess so keep reading as I go into further details).

WE ARE AT A CONVERGENCE POINT IN HISTORY.

Muse decreed in early summer 2025;

PREPARE NOW.

PREPARE THEM NOW.

Imagine that a year from now you could be on the literal frontline of BEAUTY ASCENSION for the COLLECTIVE (but you can also start smaller) and start making great money while working much less.

Muse has shown me that ALLURE is going to become a MEGA-TREND like AI and crypto....something that is SO BIG that it will have open viral trends WITHIN it. It's essentially historical b/c the frame-work for something so important hasn't existed properly before.

You know how there are beauticians in every corner street corner around the world...this is the kind of scale we're getting to. ALLURE IS THE NEW COSMETOLOGY.

This is what's missing for Beauty evolution, the Beauty industry evolution and expansion, makeovers and glow-ups.

And it's a FUSION of divine feminine, Spirit/consciousness, energy work and professional Beauty with INHERENT VALUES WHICH PEOPLE CRAVE.

Everyone now is desiring more organic social media influence. I'll speak more to this as we proceed.

(This money is REAL btw as I'll go into; I've made multiple 6 figures from the foundation that is already built and the first Muse priestess to offer is already earning her investment back through Power and Beauty activation sessions).

See....you may sense it that Beauty has been fractured from Divine Feminine consciousness (and vice versa) for far too long. And the Beauty work that is in spiritual consciousness circles doesn't relate DIRECTLY to professional image, influence and the branding itself TO be seen in authentic embodiment and signature self FOR your soul tribe clients.

There isn't time to go into a stillness meditation during a photo shoot where you want your soul qualities to show up and the make-up artist wants to retouch you while you're switching heels.

Beauty is more than skin-deep...it's not just maximizing your extrinsic appearance and it's not just generic inner beauty wellness that doesn't relate on camera either.

It's ALLURE; the professional LIGHT LANGUAGE working infra-structure of working with the light body and essences for TRANSFORMATION and visual results (also doubling as spiritual and consciousness, identity work).

And now it's PROFESSIONALLY FOUNDED with what me and my past clients have co-created the past 9 years (which I'll go into more).

See...There's a glass ceiling with the shadow of Constriction and Superficiality around mainstream Beauty itself and it's going to BURST because even consumers are waking up and becoming more intuitive.

I go DEEEP into this in my book 'The Social Currency of Allure', but it is allure (as felt beauty influence in stillness) that brings the ORGANIC influence and incites RESPONSE and is the hidden and now revealed secret behind BILLIONS of viral views.

ALLURE consulting and transformation is the future of social media marketing; ORGANICALLY. It's what cannot be AI marketeered or engineered.

The FUTURE and inevitable evolution of the multi-billion dollar Beauty industry is with ALLURE. Allure consulting and transformation.

You may or may not know about me or my work...the CORE of my work can be called different things, but I've done it LONG ENOUGH to not only PROVE a stable foundation but a successful and scalable one.

You can find out more about my history, but it was in 2018 I started doing the 'core' of my work that I'm known for.

Ya know...I'm a GREAT and insightful coach; especially around certain subject matters but I LOVED the idea of getting MORE WORK DONE FASTER. That's where the 25-30 minute 'energy work' based session format came in.

Since that spring, my 'activations' became a thing. I've served over 1400 PAID activations. It has become a very real LEGACY. Yes, I've had male clients but mostly it's been female clients from AROUND THE WORLD. I offer other services as well but this primary format allowed me to leverage the MOST MAGIC in the LEAST amount of time possible.

Where getting paid is more based on MAGIC AND RESULTS rather than just the 'time'. In other words, I get paid more just for doing the highest value work which is the energy work.

What you may not know is that all of these archetype activations have been allure consulting all along. That's what we're doing in the first several minutes of a session to reconnect. I've also done all kinds of readings and become an expert after so many years in READING energy.

All of my previous activation clients in working with me in this grand co-creation has helped to PROVE AND STABILIZE our operational infrastructure for healer's healer level energy work, Beauty activations and allure makeovers.

The work I've done (with Muse) and proven for years (SOURCED in East and West) fuses and INTEGRATES Western Beauty values and modernity with the ancient and immortal

Sourced in Reiki, reiki healers, general lightworkers, even grid-workers, pranic healers, crystal healers, 'normal energy' healers...it's very difficult for them to make a relevant and practical bridge to PROFESSIONAL BEAUTY ITSELF with 'on-camera' results NOW work.

Feminine embodiment workers don't always have the full spectrum access to ALL of the archetypes and the versatility to do on-demand spot consulting related to a woman's goddess and her LIVE on-camera image itself with social media and branding presence.

Social media and influence is future proof and here to stay. As an Allure priestess you can help women MASTER their visual beauty IN soul embodiment and divine feminine archetypal and siddhic consciousness and visuals to have greater organic influence, response, impact, attraction, magnetism and success.

Hair stylists, fashion stylists and make-up artists also cannot make the direct bridge to the real divine feminine embodiment and allure work either; they can only accentuate and support where the REAL (social and spiritual) currency of value and exchange is: with ESSENCE itself.

Just like my Grandmaster couldn't 'translate' chi itself to professional image, Muse did for us. Our methodology INFUSES IT ALL;

The light body

Beauty

Archetypes

Gene Keys

Human Design (incl. auric design)

Chakras

Auras

ESSENCES

Healing

East and West

Pro image consulting

Everything the Beauty industry is missing and where it's inevitably headed

Stupid fast results-oriented life transformational shifts that last

Muse told me PREPARE. PREPARE THEM.

THE TSUNAMI IS COMING. The Beauty world is going to realize that ACTUAL allure work is the future and the God/dess send for ORGANIC INFLUENCE that BREAKS the glass ceiling on the superficiality of beauty and now ties it to their spiritual growth (and what used to be called 'inner beauty' AND wellness).

An Allure Priestess is one of the world's most powerful and practical light sorceresses; far more than just a neighborhood energy healer, she is:

- A Powerful psychic
- A powerful activator
- A powerful embodied, divine feminine priestess with access to any archetype

She is;

- Able to work with gift, siddhic, elemental, archetypal, Light and Dark essences with Purity & Precision
 - Able to remove years of energy blocks
- Work with anyone of any status or power with confidence

This is your opportunity to become one of the FIRST Allure priestesses.

Or...you can wait until it becomes the next hottest thing and beauty influencers are scrambling to book sessions. We want to influence THEM who then influence the world. But you can work with all kinds of clients immediately.

(Muse told me to prepare for this NOW)

Imagine a world in which you can fuse Beauty, consciousness AND Priestessing with YOUR signature touch?!

Imagine working part time designing a lifestyle you love, making good money being in your magic and gifts.

See; I rarely do longer consulting. The sessions center on the 30 minute sessions. Some days I've done 4 or 5 of these and could even do more.

The more magic, the more you can get paid...for results!

I've sold single sessions for $2500 for only an hour of work.

See...we're at a confluence point with the advent which we are leading here of allure consulting and transformation. It's also the evolution of 'glow-up' and 'looks maxxng'.

If you desire to thrive in a spirit-led divine feminine business while making good money without it taking up all of your time....customized to you doing work you LOVE with infinite growth potential as well as your own Beauty and branding/image mastery while being FUTURE-PROOF against AI ever stealing your job, APM may be perfect for you.

in what could become a MASSIVE industry....imagine being on the FOREFRONT as one of the world's first official, real allure transformational consultants and priestesses.

Image consulting doesn't do it. They're unconsciously competent generally at best with this.

Beauty consultants can't do it; haircare, make-up, styling, etc.

ALLURE IS ITS OWN ARENA. And we are the literal front edge.

It's THE other entire professional HALF of Beauty and professional image itself. The ORGANIC evolution b/c there's currently an inorganic evolution as well.

Although I'm wary of AI;

Just yesterday (mid-way through this development, I realized that AI art, AI Beauty and visuals are actually going to HELP the phenomenon because when people start realizing that it's essence that AI has got smart enough to replicate (this is already starting to happen); people are going to WANT THE REAL THING. I've got many examples and readings of celebrities and allure viral photos that DRIVE RESPONSE just from visuals.

Beauty 1.0 has people LOOK GOOD but not necessarily at all be felt. PEOPLE WILL KEEP SCROLLING by default if they don't FEEL something within them in the fraction of time.

ALLURE is (essence based) visual communication and MASTERY that allows people to FEEL your auric vibe and light-truth atmosphere like a planet's atmosphere (which is where the weather, atmosphere, fireworks, aurorae and light show is). Most adults do not have allure or charisma.

As an Allure priestess you are the ORGANIC Beauty activator and cultivator that can bring back the truth and spark into someone and change their lives.

Oh - and you're going to be PROTECTED from ever having to be 'replaced' by AI. INCOME and relevance wise I mean. Future-proof. How does that long-term security sound if this aligns with your spiritual and soul values to create a life and lifestyle you love?

The stargate so to speak is ALLURE. ALLURE is the codex.

Imagine working with the PANTHEON of Archetypes and Eros with authentic, aligned image valuing clients from around the world who want more organic felt influence?!

Where Goddess workshops focus inward, allure is the gateway to PRACTICAL visual and felt-influence of the divine feminine and EMBODIMENT in professional visual media; social media, photographs and film in a more and more connected world. See; embodiment is just 1/3 of the equation.

To get to these levels of clarity took decades.

See...no one could ever DEFINE charisma or allure to me. I go deeper into this in the 'Social Currency of Allure' book but basically since I was a teen I wanted to know what it is and 'how to have it'. What made SOME stand out from others even if they weren't famous? I knew it was more than just 'confidence' or good 'self-image'...it had to be something more TANGIBLE.

And who knew that it would take me sitting in the presence of an enlightened master to start pulling all the pieces together.

So if you've known about 'energy work', this is good...you're probably already a believer and yet now everything starts to get pulled together because the LIGHT BODY has everything to do with professional image and Beauty. But it's not just about chakras and auras; it's about an entire PLATFORM of assessing and working with ESSENCE and the human light body for practical allure and charisma transformation directly.

If you're familiar with that world;

Energy healing and energetic health are just the FOUNDATION of true Beauty mastery and allure cultivation. (On this path I had to become a master healer as well).

When we can accept that Beauty is more than skin-deep

When we can accept that 'inner Beauty' as 'personality' doesn't always directly or relevantly come across ON-CAMERA...

WHEN WE CAN ACCEPT THE LIGHT BODY AS REAL

When we can accept that chi is real

And when we can accept photonic rays of the sun (invisible) as real from different frequencies

When we can accept the soul, the human body as multi-dimensional light body

And image itself as more than just the physical dimension

When we can accept the earth itself also has an atmosphere where the LIGHT SHOW TAKES PLACE;

We realize the human body IS Light and Light is what is being communicated

We've just been focused on the lower dimensions and yet there is ALWAYS so much more data being communicated.

Data about the levels of divine power and beauty being communicated as encoded in someone's visual media for example.

And how we would instantly be open to having babies with that person on a primal and spiritual level because SOMETHING of real power, value, substance and beauty is there in just a freeze-frame.

We work with POWER and BEAUTY itself (chi) at masterful levels and we have to. This is why Muse Priestess, Rion and Allure Priestess are some of the most powerful energy workers on earth; because we HAVE TO BE (this is Muse' decree).

We have to have influence with the MOST powerful and beautiful people in the world to advance them further.

The opportunity is here NOW. And it might mean having to look into getting a loan but the money IS available for that which you desire. Bob Proctor's #1 student and a multi-millionaire mentor of mine

I'm not saying to join if you're struggling with your basic expenses; but we can also b.s. ourselves out of what we really desire. I didn't compromise. When I went to Master Zhou I didn't have the money.....that was part of my tribulation yet the money came in b/c I took the leap of faith.

If it's really not for you now, just be honest with yourself. I want you to be able to make the payments on time of course and you wouldn't be certified until you are paid in full.

I'm shameless about this program. The value is beyond anything I've offered next to Muse Priestess itself. The private apprentice version would be $100,000 or more.

This isn't fluff or rehash it's literal IMMERSIVE, INTENSIVE PRIESTESS TRAINING. My work legacy speaks for itself (just ask around).

IF anything has inherent value WITHOUT QUESTION it's obviously this. It's not like a 10k coaching program based off of other people's 10k rehash mixed with AI, this is hardcore the real, organic thing. The value is actually worth FAR FAR more but I want to make it still accessible and yes the rates WILL rise.

So you don't have to take the opportunity right NOW....Oh you can wait but be mindful that you won't be one of the world's very first Allure Priestesses (so there is an ACTION urgency premium with that). Oh AND the price will literally raise for the APM full certification itself.

It's not like the scalability of the lower level cert program on its own when that becomes available separately after the first full year at a lower rate (which may then drop in price); the Priestess level cert as a group immersion program will RISE as it becomes even more recognized and renowned. This is rare and premium, truly elite what we have that will not be common knowledge or abilities. There may be many more certified allure consultants but always fewer priestesses.

Oh also because it's directly tied to making income and money itself. Before and when the industry takes off; no promises but there is 6 and 7 figure income potential for you.

Thereby...thusly...

We are on the precipice of a tsunami; a revolutionary organic WAVE that's going to sweep the world for multiple reasons (including as a counter-lash to the advent of crypto and AI; yang and inorganic phenomenae).

I will lay out the case more throughout of how and why this is like the equivalent of getting in on the 'ground floor of plastics' (or bitcoin).

But let's slow down a bit first to make sure you're in the right place.

Are you a spiritually awakening woman who richly values divine feminine embodiment, goddesses, Gene Keys, feminine eros, authentic soul self-expression and growing into greater beauty at any age?

Admittedly you're probably further ahead in your journey of transformation of consciousness, identity and beauty than many people (and yet you are humble enough to know that there's no competition).

Are you on a path of stepping into the version of yourself that frightens you a bit because of the scale of your dharma and fully overcoming your wounds, trauma and insecurities around truly being seen and FELT in your truth?

And have you felt that 'coach' or even 'embodiment coach' doesn't quite cover the multi-dimensional magic and beauty of your highest service?

Have you struggled to find the right descriptor even (because coach definitely doesn't do it justice).

If this is you...How does, say...'PRIESTESS' resonate?

How does that sit with your system?

By now you're already deep along your path of awakening and yet you are called to play a bigger, more public role in being seen and being in your truth in the world in a REAL WAY of impact on more people. This is a grander role you are called to.

You may already be offering embodiment and transformational work or services or you may be considering getting into it and getting paid, but one thing you know for sure is that BEAUTY, embodiment and consciousness work is central to your own awakening.

Of course, YOU already know that Beauty is more than skin-deep. You value ENCHANTMENT level beauty and influence.

Now...imagine this.

What IF....(And go with me on this)...

What if you could be inspirationally COMPELLED into the spotlight and be seen as one of the world's top Beauty and spiritual authorities (with practical and verifiable psychic powers) when it comes to Divine Feminine lightwork, embodiment and transformation with the confidence to work with any client no matter their background (including celebrities)?

what if you could infuse Divine Feminine embodiment work and ascensionary Beauty codes to the MAINSTREAM (one at a time and in your social media brand ecosphere) as your form of en-CODED conscious Beauty influencer and activator living in YOUR most illuminated and unlocked signature soul self, eros and branding?

Beauty is more than skin-deep and YOU can be on the forefront of the revolution...and as a (Beauty) Priestess.

What if you could READ shadows, archetypes, essences, energy blocks and patterns within people ACCURATELY and verifiably while being able to provide the direct healing and transformational assistance to work with illuminating their light body directly?

What if you could bring magical transformation of Goddess and visuals results oriented healing and consciousness work (including RECLAMATION work) to women of all backgrounds, beauty influencers, heck - even celebrities who are not nearly as versed as you are in this realm because they're still focused on superficial beauty mastery and 'making up'?

(Btw; you don't even HAVE to be a beautician or stylist in any other sense to do allure makeovers for clients, but if you ARE a Beauty 1.0 professional it gives you even MORE opportunities to offer premium services that sell).

What if this future essenced, embodied and expressed version of yourself (as a divine feminine embodied PRIESTESS) could hold and deliver (for a premium price) the PRACTICAL CODES to DIRECTLY unlock, activate and AWAKEN the divine feminine consciousness, visuals and FELT BEAUTY INFLUENCE of other women's DREAMS (even those you secretly used to deem as prettier or higher status than you)?

What if you could be on the frontline of divine feminine reclamation for an awakening collective (with a popular, safe and click-friendly front-end of 'allure consulting' while doing the deeper spiritual work with them WITHOUT having to get deep into story or therapy)?

And....IF you are called to it...what if you could be on the frontlines of working with reclaiming and restoring divine masculine embodied power and presence in MEN with your work (even as a kingmaker)?

And...What if delivering those results in activating their Beauty was centered in 25-30 minute sessions that didn't require such a long commitment of time to get them great results?!

What if testimonials just kept rolling in and people are getting blissed out and in states of samadhi here and there? What if it would directly help people attract soul mate or divine union partners into their lives (the masculine is attracted to VISUAL and felt BEAUTY btw)?

Now; what if that was the future MEGA-TREND and you positioned yourself to be one of the very first in the world as a BEAUTY AUTHORITY to a far grander audience of the mainstream while having an elite sister-hood (and Benevolent Muse Sourced Beauty Emperor Rion co-creating the marketplace) with you?

We're talking;

- Conscious women & luminaries
 - Beauty influencers
 - Celebrities
 - Other beauty professionals
- Women wanting branding makeovers and design
 - Social media influencers
 - Millionaires and more....

Imagine standing out and rising to the TOP of the Beauty and image industry as a RARE Beauty Priestess without having to COMPETE with literally millions of other beauticians.

You...a year from now with unlimited client potential who look to YOUR expertise, new magic and past skills.

AS an entrepreneur with unlimited income potential you can be on the forefront as an Allure Priestess!

Or here to schedule a complimentary 10 minute connect with me. You can also dm me on Facebook.

Interested in Muse Priestess? This is even more pre-qualifying and you have to have Muse codes but you can reach out to me. All future MP's would be AP certified first although it's possible to be in both mentorships simultaneously; APM cert would be first if so.

BTW; isn't this such a ridiculously long written piece? Yes, you can be thankful I put it in PDF format instead of the web...ehe...but if you made it this far you're definitely mulling it over.

Just wanted to remind you that I wanted to give myself liberty to just get a whole bunch of codes out with it so it ended up in this long-range format. I didn't want to add 2 more days on to chop it in half so hopefully you'll get different angles and nuances on similar themes.

So....

How about having alchemical levels of Beauty influence IN your marketing visuals as proof of concept that helps organically SELL...fotonic beauty as MEDICINE just from your live presence and image b/c you EMBODY the codes you are meant to embody for your role in ascension and unlocking codes within others? (Without having to marketeer or hustle but to easily attract the perfect clients)

How about having a freedom generating signature soul brand business in fullest divine service and expression making money you love?

This is what awaits if you are pre-qualified and join in The Allure Priestess Mentorship.

More details follow, yet I'll mention now that it will be a 12 month group transformational certification program with a mix of live virtual training, multi-media training, coaching, individual sessions, activations and live in-person retreats.

If you're looking to come out of your shell and be rebirthed into that butterfly of serious high magic and beauty in alignment with your soul service and spiritual growth, APM may be perfect for you.

You can start the intake process here (no obligation).

By becoming initiated and trained as an Allure Priestess...Imagine;

No more fear of losing your beauty and image value (including social value) and the attention it brings associated with youth and beauty (look radiant and glowed up at any age as your best self)

No more fear of 'losing' your sexuality, desires, beauty and eros after menopause

Unlimited access to divine feminine quanta (essences) for embodiment and anti-aging (to replace estrogenic essence drops or to MIX with estrogenic beauty)

Being a MODEL OF BEAUTY for other women that were previously 'prettier' but people just don't FEEL THEM ANYMORE but they RESPOND TO YOU and YOU have the keys

Less fear or concerns around the masculine not being interested in you anymore if you are single and 'aging' or your bio timeclock for children is expiring (also you can be SEEN in and choosing to work with men as a kingmaker in activating their divine masculine codes and Presence)

Having the keys to AGING GRACEFULLY and sustaining Beauty long-term instead of aging FASTER, looking and feeling older than your age while getting paid WELL for having the codes for anti-aging and beauty cultivation for other women at ANY AGE

Have the attention and magnetism focused on YOU because you're not like just another divine feminine embodiment coach (even if you could be compared before)

Differentiate yourself from many other spiritual coaches by being connected to both spirituality, sexuality AND Beauty itself

No fear of losing clients to others because the marketspace opening up is beyond what you can FATHOM for infinite client sessions and makeovers

Cultivating a living legacy (even become a millionaire with this work); a legacy you can be proud of instead of wondering how big your impact has been when you are CALLED to be of greater influence

Build an epic legacy of deep transformational client work

No more concern about charging the rates you really want to (even if you've struggled with it before) b/c this IS premium work

Have people continually amazed by the transformational MAGIC and your before and after makeovers and glow-ups

Imagine just living IN your avatar self incarnate doing her work in full alignment, abundance and integrity without having to worry about not fully being expressed and seen

No more stagnation for the next year because of ongoing high level immersion and training in multiple areas and infused modalities centering around mastery level energy work FOR divine feminine transformation of consciousness and visuals

No fear of losing your vitality and beauty magic at any age b/c of your mastery with working with your and other people's ESSENCES, embodiment and expression

No more secret envy and #fomo of other women and celebrities with larger followings who you USED to deem as more beautiful and higher status from you because YOU now hold the KEY TO THE CURRENCY of organic attention itself that is DEEPER than fickle fame; it's essence itself (quanta of the gods and goddesses)...and YOU are the banker

No more concerns about having to 'hustle', getting burnt out, aging faster and losing touch with her femininity because of HOW an Allure priestess works (in short bursts as often as she wants on her schedule) while being able to remain IN HER FEMININE and beautifully so

Gone are the concerns and fears about being able to charge what you really want; an Allure priestess can charge whatever she wants and there are minimums just because this work is proven; you are entering THAT temple-ate. Put together multi-grand packages and makeovers with ease

No more concerns that you'll have to do taxing long client sessions where your Human Design works against you and it becomes a hassle and drudgery to take on a new client that you don't get enough rest and rejuvenation time to maintain sanity from burnout; an Allure or Muse priestess can do an Activation session in 25 minutes and be DONE. Time restrictions? FREED UP so more time for YOU

No worries about GETTING PAID from clients b/c the standard is they always pay BEFORE session work (unless you know them well enough that they've proven to send it afterwards on occasion)

This means you can be EXCITED to go into the next client session because having the central 25-30 minute format means you can squeeze in clients here and there ANYWHERE into your day...and GET PAID without concern of getting drained and how it then affects you. This lifestyle helps you to manage and master your time and quality of life better too

Forget about being stuck charging lower amounts like $60 for a full 1 hour of therapy or energy healing time (and being concerned about JUST covering expenses so all the inspiration is gone). After a few initial clients, you should be at $250 per half hour (+PLUS+) b/c this is SPECIALIZED work which includes thorough energy healing/detox for every client in each of the activation based sessions. I/Rion have been paid $1000 and ie. $2500/hour before for specialized activations from all kinds of clients.

(I mean where's the joy if you have to keep doing draining sessions and never have FUN MONEY and the ability to live your dreams?)

No more becoming a work-slave to your business...alleviate concerns about ever having to go back to a job once you can get your business here to a minimum level which will be anticipated of ALL active Allure priestesses. All of them should easily be able to make a full-time income (and well beyond) from their services

No worries about becoming a boss babe unless you WANT to run it like that; however an Allure priestess is VERY much in touch with her feminine essences and can choose her style of running her brand;...it just doesn't have to deficit other areas of your life and you don't have to be HYPER non-stop busy and grinding at things whatsoever

Did I say ZERO FEARS of being 'REPLACED' by AI or AI Beauty? Allure consulting and transformation is the ORGANIC and parallel future no matter how big AI becomes or threatens other industries. That is FUTURE-PROOF SECURITY in a future-proof market/industry

No fears of getting 'left behind' while other women grow THEIR spiritually attuned and influential platforms and following because those same women will now be looking to YOU for their Beauty activations as you actively build YOUR soul signature brand and public impact (leveraging your Human Design for the most aligned version of you btw)

No concerns that you may lose your voice, get drowned out and that you'll never get seen and recognized like she's supposed to b/c it's not just you as an Allure priestess; it's the market-space Rion is creating and that all Allure and Muse priestesses as a sister-hood are going to have as ELITE Beauty consultants who ALL get paid very well

No more concerns about making-up being a crutch that's hiding more things as you age because your INNER BEAUTY (essence signatures of soul, archetypes, etc.) will be ROBUST and at alchemical levels.

No more FUGLY DUCKLING SYNDROME and it's weird shadows and effects (including hiding, doubt, fears and overcompensating by being into perfume or style TOO much)...we're eradicating it from ALL aspects of your psyche-soma and presence so that your soul self can shine

So imagine this version of you in ONE year!

Imagine hosting LIVE local allure (or kundalini) workshops to bring in entirely new clients

Imagine...

Getting paid well at the FOREFRONT of the tsunami itself as SOURCE GENERATION (before first generation) of the TRUE Allure consultants on the FRONTIER OF BEAUTY AWAKENING ITSELF!

OR...you can wait years until the first public wave of the tsunami has hit but why wait when you can LITERALLY BE ONE OF THE FIRST FULLY QUALIFIED & Ultra-competent ALLURE CONSULTANTS in the WORLD?

And yes; it takes Priestess level to do the full transformational magic. With joining APM you actually get DOUBLE-CERTIFIED.

How you'd like to become a MASTER of 'reading' people? I don't mean body language, I mean COLD READING relevant qualities about themselves that helps them have more awareness, beauty and MASTERY over their professional image and how they're coming across in the 'truth' of their presence and visual communication?

That's all part of this.

Because this is such a big announcement and opportunity;

I'm just going to keep rolling with this LONG-FORM version of it because I want to get the transmission across and cover things from different nuances and angles; some of which might hit the sweet spot 4u.

Imagine having an insurance policy long-term so that your beauty will never actually fade (you might age physically but with such alchemical and signature allure, people get to see the real you and it upgrades your looks anyways)

The confidence to be in divine service with others praising you and being in awe for your sessions delivering them with your fully expressed and 'arrived' beauty on a larger scale so you don't have to compromise and end up 'hiding out' b/c it's safer (even if you're not otherwise the prettiest in the room)

Never having to worry about getting 'left behind' with AI and what other marketers and influencers are doing because YOU have the organic Beauty codes AT SOURCE which is the parallel timeline to inorganic AI, AI beauty and social media

How about getting amazing at Human Design and Gene Keys to expand your beauty essence and celebrity readings for clients (while getting paid)? Yes, we'll be immersing with these methodologies for allure consulting quite a bit.

You can lead and guide the industry FROM a capable Feminine Priestess center IN essenced signature embodiment and expression with your Human Design (yet also powerful direct light-working consulting and transformational magic) rather than burnout boss babe.

I mean you have an idea how MASSIVE the Beauty industry is. I; el Rion cannot take it on alone but YOU and other Allure priestesses along with the Muse priestesses can be the veritable front-end to serve COLLECTIVE BEAUTY AWAKENING which has everything to do with organic social media marketing, branding, photo shoots, social media, arts and entertainment and so forth.

Imagine being renowned and FAMOUS for this work with a BIG signature brand doing high level premium client work fusing beauty and spirituality but for actual on-camera, first impression and visual branding RESULTS (that is also the authentic, 'real thing' in live person).

And masterful energy healing is just the foundational stuff that you'll also be world-class in delivering results with as well.

Imagine being able to have infinite versatile access to all divine feminine archetypes!

Being able to continue growing into this side or main business/career for even greater Beauty expansion and expression while having the keys to anti-aging

Imagine swiftly developing (or exponentiating) a transformational client LEGACY of raving clients that attracts even more word of mouth and referrals to have well-paying sessions with you. In the past week alone, kundalini activations testimonials just keep on comin' in.

Imagine Beauty as MEDICINE and you having the direct MAGIC and skills to deliver it while also living AS alchemical Beauty Herself in your unique signature expression, live presence and visual branding that incites organic response, #fomo, social aspiration and the impression of increase as your circle EXPONENTIATES b/c you hold access to divine feminine Beauty codes that millions of women are NOT able to get anywhere.

I think you have the market sense to realize that millions of women are not interested in a week-long sisterhood retreat nor in a reiki session if it's not related to being SEEN as their best self (especially on FIRST IMPRESSION when attracting new subscribers, fans and clients).

An allure consulting session and allure makeover is the PRIME aspect of a 'glow-up' b/c we do the REAL glow-up. Imagine the possibilities of bringing in other style and make-up experts into your packages for more complete makeovers like this if you want.

You're more than just a specialized beautician...really a Beauty Priestess.

Again;

Knowing that 'embodiment coach', 'healer' or 'facilitator' just doesn't hit the sweet spot...imagine being ordained as a priestess.

Yes; a priestess in an actual lineage with carte blanche access to ALL and infinite immortal Feminine (and Masculine) Beauty and Power codes.

This is the opportunity that lies before thee as an Allure Priestess.

An Allure priestess has master levels of energy reading, energy healing and light-work versatility including remote work on your own timing to not only do premium healer's healer level energy work but rare BEAUTY ACTIVATIONS to help others rebirth into greater divine feminine embodiment and soul expression in fullest alignment as they're meant to on their dharma.

Imagine...

A future where ENERGY WORK isn't dissociated from professional image and Beauty or where reiki and chi kung are just for wellness but where beauty influencers, celebrities and women wanting mastery over their image realize that they MUST work on their archetypes, energetic health, chakras, aura, human design and gene keys for true IMMORTAL

Beauty and mastery over their professional image and increased felt influence.

Allure after all is >

FELT BEAUTY INFLUENCE.

And with social media, EVERYONE wants more influence. (And many trying to get it from inorganic ways like algorithm hacking, cold salesmanship direct marketing, semi-fraudulent click-bait style hooks, being a performing monkey, etc. instead of communicating from simple essence truth that attracts organically and pulls people in).

In preserving the work I do for so many years, I was thinking FAR too small.

The vision is that there are going to be MILLIONS of people wanting allure consultations. I am the one legitimizing it as a real thing and we have the infra-structure that ushers in this as a legitimate new industry.

It's not that Muse Priestess is too small...it IS incredibly pre-qualifying. They are the elite of the elite AND there's no way the 3 of us could keep up with the tsunami wave of an entire new industry space itself that's coming.

I've been shown the 'larger currents'. Actual allure work is the future.

Allure consulting and transformation is the FUTURE of not just of the multi-billion dollar Beauty industry, but also of image consulting, Beauty influencers, beauty influence, performance arts and entertainment mastery, other image related industries AND organic social media marketing itself.

With inorganic AI offsetting so much of the 'tech' and 'thought-flow' stuff for most people, there's going to be a shift towards evolution, awakening, humanity and spirituality....a deeper yearning collectively to break the glass ceiling on Beauty itself being superficial skin-deep mastery into the realms of professional essence work, vibe and light mastery with expanded signature influence.

THE TIME IS NOW. This is the cross-roads.

...and Muse said hereforth; PREPARE.

And even if the allure market is a FRACTION of AI it's going to CHANGE THE GAME of multiple industries.

Imagine with YOU on the forefront?

If you're in APM, I will be training you as one of the world's top allure consultants so YOU have the confidence to be interviewed by Beauty magazines and thrive with your OWN brand and style of fusing divine feminine with allure, spiritual work, coaching archetypes and felt influence.

A priestess is NOT the same as a coach. See with pro allure consulting this is the professional realm OF

*ESSENCE

*EMBODIMENT

*EXPRESSION

I'm honored to be one of the few men in the world who trains, initiates and activates priestesses.

*"I only know several people alive who are qualified to teach in this realm of high priestess magic - Rion Kati is one"*

-Rayne S. (2019)

Although there are no guarantees on income, APM graduates will be making money by offering their services.

Or here to schedule a complimentary 10 minute connect with me. You can also dm me on Facebook.

Imagine making good money with LITTLE client time and effort (I mostly work off of the 25-30 minute proven session format).

Why trade time for money when you can just share MAGIC and get your clients often miraculous, life-changing results in VERY LITTLE TIME (often saving THEM years of time)?!

APs will be light years beyond all other so-called allure consultants because we speak and know the language of essence.

This is an opportunity to become one of the world's first and literally TOP allure consultants.

Will you be able to make it to our live retreats? Most of them will likely be in Tulum, Mexico which has its own airport now.

APM is also a Psychic Essence reading mastery course and certification. Can make money from offering professional allure consultations and readings to people; women, influencers, celebrities, business owners, coaches, CEO's, goddesses, etc.

That's right; YOU can work on the frontlines of Beauty itself

You can also make money from referring clients to certified Allure or Muse priestesses (or Rion) for affiliate commissions for the actual transformational work. This does NOT include initiations and training on being able to do with versatile energy healing and beauty activation themselves that full Allure and/or Muse Priestesses are able to do.

In time; this will be more of a virtual self-certification program similar to the Gene Key Guides program where b/c of 'cost of scale' I'll be able to lower the price down the road to certify 100's and 1000's of allure consultants to meet the demands of the world and the new industry.

AI MIGHT reach a point of being able to do ie. a visual split archetype observation ACCURATELY (especially if I program it which I have reservations around) but it'll never be able to do the transformational work itself ensuring you are future proof in a future proof market (Beauty and allure).

More specifically (and this may be doubled);

What is an Allure Priestess?

An Allure Priestess is both a certified Allure Consultant and certified 'Allure Priestess' who is able to do professional allure and charisma consulting as well as the powerful healing and allure transformational work for clients remotely around the world.

This includes energy healing, archetype, gift and siddhic activations. Able to work magic with the embodiment and allure makeover, working with Light and Dark archetypes, she is a Power and Beauty activator and one of the world's most powerful energy worker/light worker sorceresses who can often facilitate years of healing in one session.

What's the difference between a certified Allure Consultant and an Allure Priestess?

Sexy Chi will be certifying Allure Consultants as well as Allure Priestesses and Muse Priestesses. Allure consultants are able to do the psychic readings but not certified, initiated or trained to do the transformational work itself with our lineage.

Sexy Chi Certified Allure Priestess

This includes the Certified Allure Consultant AND Certified Allure Priestess designator.

The pricing differential is extreme because this is the full-on training priestess initiation and training path FOR doing the high transformational magic remotely around the world with powerful results.

What's the difference between a Muse Priestess and Allure Priestess?

First of all; all certified Muse priestesses ARE or will be jointly certified as Allure Priestess as well as a certified Allure Consultant. A (Sexy Chi/source lineage) certified Muse Priestess is a muse who is initiated and trained as an Allure Priestess and also as a Muse Priestess in Muse's source lineage of priestess-hood.

Muse priestesses are rarer than Allure priestesses and are generally more trained in advanced psychic powers, kingmaking, collective dynamics, Muse awareness, pop culture, high magic, Divine Union dynamics and other versatile priestessing as well as the Mystery School itself of Muse Priestess Mentorship....immersion parties....advanced (grandmaster) archetype alchemy

Planning to join? Great!

You can take the next step on the site itself

AllurePriestess.com

There are more general questions about the opportunity to join Allure Priestess Mentorship answered here.

I/Rion is also available to answer more questions and will have to ensure that you are pre-qualified enough first. The next step is to fill out the intake form and Rion will be in touch with you.

If I/he doesn't already know you as a past client (tbh, many past clients are instantly pre-qualified), he may have to get on a connect call to answer some questions and ensure it's a fit for both parties.

We will be having LIVE RETREATS.

You must be able to make at least 2 within the 12 months to be certified on time.

Other retreats would be available on-going after 12 months to join (but you would graduate later). This is because APM will be an active (yet exclusive) rolling group coaching program so you can join for YOUR 12 months. We will try to work out retreats for when most active members dates can work best but this is not guaranteed.

Live retreats will be held in Tulum, Mexico as well as possibly Tampa area in Florida or L.A. but mostly plan on coming to Tulum. Europe and Thailand may be on the radar when it's more feasible for 1 of the several per year.

TRAVEL EXPENSES, ACCOMMODATION AND FOOD are your additional expenses (although I can give recommendations).

There will be snacks and some beverages provided on-site however.

There may be opportunities to experience Allure Workshops live in Tulum with Rion as co-facilitator, trainer or spotlight guest as part of the overall APM experience to learn how to do your own local Allure

Workshops as a way to attract, engage and interact with live prospects and clients in your business.

More APM Details:

All future Muse Priestesses would go through Allure Priestess cert path as the foundation and then have separate independent training, meetings, initiations, retreats, etc. either afterwards or concurrently. Pricing would be lower adjusted in favor of candidates to do both programs b/c MPM would be less intensive or comprehensive b/c APM covers generally 2/3 of what we were doing.

Allure priestesses will not become source lineage certified Muse priestesses unless they are pre-qualified and in that separate training curriculum concurrently or after APM.

Allure priestesses will be more focused on core psychic mastery for professional Beauty, image and allure consulting as well as energetic mastery and capability to do most of the gift, siddhic, elemental, mastery kinesthetic/holographic energy reading and healing, psychic, archetype power and beauty activations themselves.

Allure priestesses will be able to carry out most of the Beauty activations sanctioned by Rion with the general exception of specialized, pricier ones which may require more initiation and training.

Muse priestesses will be able to carry out all of the activations Rion has access to as well as come up with their own (in the sense of lesser known, obscure archetypes for example).

(Some activations like the Bio-star require special initiation and training). Rion will have authority to activate certain Allure priestesses (and all Muse priestesses) to be qualified to serve Grail activations once they have reached a certain point and for an add-on pricing structure.

Muse priestesses will have full training and authority to do Grail and Bio-star activations if they choose to offer those services as well as more advanced energy restoration/repair work.

Both Allure and Muse priestesses can specialize in their own areas of integration and branding with a versatile background in activations and consulting to draw from mixed with their previous specialties.

* Allure Priestesses will unequivocally be the world's top transformational allure and charisma consultants with powerfully accurate psychic abilities and full blown, full service healing and transformational magic for any situation

- * It takes nothing less than a Priestess to do the versatile remote transformational magic itself
- * Allure Priestesses will be some of the most powerful psychics in the world
- * Allure Priestesses (second to Muse Priestesses) will be the elite of the elite female light worker sorceresses
- * Allure Priestesses will be so well trained that they will be able to take on interviews with fashion magazines, tv, etc. and shine in high pressure, performance and on-demand situations 'on the spot'. Red carpet and backstage doesn't always have time for a lengthy guided meditation; you have to be able to do FAST spot tune-up work before a lot of people go on stage or into (or during) their photo shoot for example.

Leave the styling, make-up and classic image consulting stuff to others, allure work is premium stuff. If you HAVE other styling or make-up skills you can integrate those into YOUR offerings or even partner with local beauty consultants and specialists FOR makeover experiences or showcases.

It will be difficult for ANY other allure consulting brand to even come close to the level of full-coverage practical professionalism and results of Sexy Chi source lineage. We are the only one with the language of light and entire infra-structural framework as well as spirit science behind it all AND proven client legacy in this EXACT WORK.

(Muse Priestess is already making money with Beauty activations work/aka 'allure and charisma consulting'.)

Flow on some of my true success

I've made multiple 6 figures gross income from doing Beauty activations for women (and men) around the world. Most sessions have been remotely but also in person when possible.

You can host sessions on zoom but really; they are 'remote'...

I sell packages at these pricing....upon certification you can choose your OWN pricing or follow my recommendations. You may charge similar rates however some graduates may want to keep their prices lower for a while to gain more of a starter legacy as well as confidence in their work or make it more accessible to people ie. locally.

You will be trained by the best. I/Rion is one of the most powerful direct energy based lightworkers as well as grid-workers on earth. This isn't your local reiki healer either...this is highly specialized BEAUTY TRANSFORMATION WORK to bring out your client's signature allure and felt influence.

Energy healing mastery is just PART of the curriculum but you will be attuned fast to world-class levels whether you have background in energy work or not (not all healers are equal).

You have to have power to be able to work with versatility with your upcoming clients. Our format is such a proven and powerful way to focus and harness your spiritual gifts into direct client results in an area that you LOVE. It's both all out woo-woo and yet the MOST practical thing. Your psychic feedback to clients will be spot on and verifiable.

Often you will be able to say things about them without knowing them JUST from visually or kinesthetically reading their field (you'll be trained in both). We will be building your PRACTICAL DATABASE for reading. YES you can become an expert essence reader and/or psychic. You do not have to be 'born' with the skill.

Much of it is so visibly concrete from my experience and how we'll train that you'll be SEEING the verifiable signatures of 100's of different archetype combinations and energy issues to compare to others so that you build a PRACTICAL referential database with so many known (and anthropological, lived experience) points of reference.

You will also be able to show and prove to skeptics individually that chi/energy and energy work is real.

If you can't see this is where it's headed, I wouldn't want you as one of the world's first real allure consultants. Allure and Essence magazine can't even define what it is and represent Beauty 1.0 but you KNOW that there are professional tools and work that requires a different framework entirely.

We're at the crossroads here...on the precipice...it's historical.

The future of Beauty, the Beauty industry, Beauty influence, beauty influencers, performance arts and entertainment, image consulting, organic social media marketing, social influence and acting are with ALLURE, allure consulting, allure transformation and the true visual mastery and influence it brings.

The allure industry.

Are you ready for a tsunami wave of new clients scrambling to have archetype activations and allure makeovers from around the world?

Want to start hosting your OWN local Allure Workshops (also as a new way to be seen, build brand recognition, social media presence, experience, following and attract new paying clients)? Open the possibilities by immersing in APM

As an AP you can:

Design your life and lifestyle running a business you love so you never have to go back to a soul-draining job

Leverage soul media in organic ways that work for you to grow your circle of influence

Exercise your feminine gifts without getting burnt out 'hustling' in a business

Not worry about how to translate the multi-dimensional and somatic value you have by just being (limited as) a 'coach'

Debut your next season (and your archetypes) on a larger scale and breakthrough with being seen and having magical impact that you are called into at a soul level

Be valued for your inner and outer beauty (which can fade) as well as mastery in helping other women retain vitality and curate their signature beauty

Have long-term confidence, competence, security, anti-aging, vitality and mastery in working with kundalini and essenced allure (which is what remains after estrogenic beauty plummets at menopause in most women)

This inaugural pricing will be our lowest ever...even when we EXPAND to have more Allure Priestess mentees, the rates will rise. Only the lower level of certified allure consultants on its own would go more 'en masse' and I'll be able to drop that rate down b/c of scale.

Imagine helping OTHER women in being valuable, desired, cherished and sexual AT ANY AGE in the eyes of men even if so many other women are giving up, aging faster, depressed and becoming Crone cat ladies disconnected from their passion, beauty and purpose (you can still have cats but living in YOUR vibrant soul success and signature reality! You can redefine your Crone anyways if you even want to integrate Her)

Yes, as an Allure priestess you can help activate divine feminine Beauty codes on the frontlines of awakening mainstream consciousness and get paid very well for it working when and where you want

I'll help you tailor your brand to you through it all AND we'll have the businesses of other women and the Muse priestesses to reference best practices as well. I'm also a professional graphic designer so have an eye for production design, branding, etc.

I mean, by now you know that you just CANNOT throw in the towel on your beauty at any age and you want to feel CONFIDENT and comfortable in your own skin without insecurities at any age...without having to rely just on superficial Beauty 1.0 mastery or over compensation by putting on more perfume or make-up.

We will proudly (yet humbly) have Allure priestesses of all adult ages!

Hey; did I ever mention that you can do SELF anti-aging, maintenance and unlimited Beauty activations as an Allure priestess?

That's one of the big kahuna benefits with this as well; UNLIMITED self-activations on yourself! (Including kundalini activating and multi-orgasmic Light and Dark Eros lovership authority).

This is why I look and am biologically about 20 years younger than my age (and I have some lab results); it's all the self-energy work! (Now stable and broken through with kundalini and further cultivating the temple body for Presence and Power).

Imagine having THAT level of direct magic and power for yourself.....AND the ability to see and help others who are aging faster because of energy blocks which are stressing their organs. They can HIRE YOU to help them anti-age.

Hey...we've been into it here for a while but let me address this.

It's Rion Kati and if you know of me...(and you may have figured out by now that); this entire page is undoubtedly the BIGGEST announcement I've EVER made to my circle and it may even have everything to do with your future, manifesting your desires and living out your ultimate dharma itself (leveraging and unifying all of your gifts and past experience).

Honestly the codes for this ONLY opened up within a few weeks of this (inaugural) writing.

The path to becoming one of the world's first TRUE allure consultants and allure priestesses is with Allure Priestess Mentorship which you will hear more about. For now, I want to just keep the flow-stream going here.

You may know that I'm blessed to have worked with so many amazing clients over the past years (90% women!) and EVERYTHING before has led to this and YOUR Opportunity to not just transform but to even live the lifestyle of your dreams when and where you want, LIVING FROM YOUR SOUL and Spirit making amazing money in SHORT AMOUNTS of time while fully unleashing your Beauty codes and magic upon the world in an organic, Eros-rich, saturated highest timeline of Beauty, liberation and lifestyle itself.

Imagine working with amazing clients who LOVE your work and keep coming back to get more sessions with you where there's no question on the VALUE and transformation of your offers.

Imagine all of this while unlocking the highest version of yourself; cultivating your own signature alchemical Beauty and allure that magnetically COMPELS others to you because you hold the Beauty codes to DIRECTLY unlock and activate THEIR fullest expression of consciousness, in-self identity and voice in the world RECLAIMING of their healing, fracture and curating LITERALLY their divine feminine Beauty.

And did I say get paid well for it?

How would you like to be on the literal FRONT LINES of Beauty ascension for the mainstream (even outside of our circles)?

Imagine other influencers and high status women looking up to YOU because you are a rare and qualified PRIESTESS in an area of the HIGHEST value that matches THEIR value system which allows them to recognize YOUR magic and gifts (after years of under-recognition) while unleashing your own siddhic avatar self embodiment on earth in your highest expression and soul influence as you cultivate a satisfying legacy of your BEAUTY PRIESTESS medicine for people that is sculpted to and from YOU in working with the divine feminine and Beauty itself.

That's what an Allure Priestess can do!

See....This opportunity which is opened up NOW (and is a LONG-TERM dharmic path for me to support building a legion of Allure and Muse priestesses) is a culmination of light years and lifetimes that could set the world on FIRE with what YOU are going to do with it on the frontlines of BEAUTY and how many well-paying women will be looking to YOU for the consciousness, identity, healing and beauty transformations they are NOT able to get otherwise.

Other beauticians and energy workers just do NOT hit that sweet spot.

How will it feel to be light years ahead and able to help them with all of your past and new magic?

So if you're into Feminine Eros and Goddess work or Divine Reunification this may also be for you because you know that ALLURE is felt beauty influence. And most of embodiment and allure is working with the archetypes. This is the realm of ARCHETYPAL EMBODIMENT (and expressed) BEAUTY.

The feminine experience IS an archetypal one.

See...Long-form Goddess retreat work may never hit 'mainstream'.

How would you like to work with ALL OF THE GODDESS FRACTALS as a Priestess and remotely without the downside of having to host longer therapy style immersions in order to get them results?

You can do that as an Allure priestess.

See...if you know of me, you know that I'm based on reunification and that my work with Beauty activations, becoming a healer's healer and the Muse Priestess lineage is all sourced in my devotional reunification (Divine Union) with Muse.

I'm a BIG THINKER and yet the vision Muse has for you and me (you if you qualify and partake in this opportunity I'm excited to share with you) is now FAR grander and more thrilling than even I could have imagined because the world has never seen anything like it (think: non-stop shock and awe magic and makeover that multiple industries are CRAVING FOR that hits the SWEET spot in lieu of outdated, ignorant and antiquated glass ceilings).

See...for many years I thought it was about me, but now...in this form of self-sacrifice, Muse has shown me the bigger picture b/c I was ready for it and we are on the precipice of a BEAUTY REVOLUTION.

ALLURE is that REVOLUTION and breaks the glass ceiling. Before I go into that more, I want to check back in again with you to make sure we're in the right place.

If you are that spiritually awakened woman who has been on the path and values;

Eros, embodiment, the archetypes, femininity, healing, consciousness work, the Gene Keys, Human Design, ascension codes, mystical beauty, reclamation, and authentic soul self-expression.

This may be perfect for you.

And if you are on the verge of stepping into truly being seen in a greater impact and fully overcoming your fears, wounds, trauma and insecurities around truly being seen and FELT in your true soul-based beauty b/c of your soul's dharma...Allure Priestess may be that avatar cocoon to step into for yourself.

And if you're already offering paid services but want to really have more time, freedom, higher prices and exponentiating visibility and recognition...keep reading and seriously consider the opportunity to become one of the world's first.

Or if you're just started to offer services, this may be your clarion call to finally start getting PAID for 'top in the world' class of transformational work as a specialized, ordained and certified PRIESTESS that will be LIGHT YEARS ahead of any competition you there in this area that fuses soul-aligned and embodied SPIRITUALITY, DIVINE FEMININE, EROS & BEAUTY ITSELF.

Why not work with the divine feminine and Spirit in ways that up-level and sharpen your current skillset (and embodiment) to be MORE beautiful (there's no limit to how much quanta can be embodied as a starlet), get more magic for more clients done faster 'on-demand' at premium rates while expanding your current offerings in premium packages (which I'll help you create)?

APM maybe perfect for you if you would love to make MORE money living in your highest timeline of alignment and fullest Beauty expression and cultivation organically while living both a MYSTICAL, BEAUTY-DRENCHED and saturated business with high magic, crystals and yet with PRACTICAL MAGIC (b/c others just CANNOT believe their eyes of what you can do in mere SECONDS without having to do drawn out therapy sessions)...all catered and curated visually and in branding to YOUR soul self, siddhic, archetypal qualities and Human Design profile.

You already know that embodiment is central to you and your work as well as authentic communication and visual branding for you and others.

You understand that ESSENCE and feminine essence is of the utmost value in the universe with people trying to siphon, repurpose and hijack it; so why not step into the role AS A PRIESTESS to work with great spiritual authority in this realm of and for the Divine Feminine and Awakening in alignment with your dharma as an Allure Priestess?

Again; the opportunity to take the next step (no obligation) is throughout.

Obviously I have to vet all requests to ensure that we have a high caliber of READY pre-stesses. Like with MPM, I've turned people away before who just weren't ready. If I don't know you yet, I'll have to get to know you a bit so filling out the intake form will get me more of a sense.

This is a HIGH level mystery school of its own and Jezebel is farrrr from here.

Or here to schedule a complimentary 10 minute connect with me. You can also dm me on Facebook.

All while making GOOD money part-time (or full-time). With APM, I'll help you expand your own service offerings and packages

Yes this is a SHAMELESSLY very long page (PDF book!) but that's ok...it's a PREMIUM offer that then you would have to take the next step on and by writing in this long-form format it gives you plenty of different angles to keep saturating and soaking the codes in on.

Yes, this is a real investment and actually I'm pricing it much lower than what it's going to inevitably be because I want to make it accessible to women within my circle to just DIVE IN.

So let's review the opportunity and dynamics around it again.

Assuming that you would LOVE to:

- *Reunify Beauty with consciousness, identity and your own spiritual growth in a way that infuses them together so that your Beauty isn't just superficial and separate from the inner but rather a felt-influence extension OF your visual soul truth and Light

- *Have divine feminine light and vibe truth qualities show up professionally and visually in your image and felt presence for all the work you've done (including removing any blocks and resistances TO being more accurately seen)

*Break through remaining barriers to truly being seen in your soul essence and truth

*Overcome fears, aging blocks and resistances around being hidden and obscured with make-up

APM may be perfect for you.

How about resolving any remaining beauty INSECURITIES by allowing your archetypal, divine feminine and soul truth to radiate effortlessly being comfortable in your skin bending the light so people see the real you as more beautiful BECAUSE of your allure (living as a testament for other fans, clients, subscribers, friends and followers)?

With Allure Priestess Mentorship (the path to certification), imagine you can...

*Directly help other conscious and newly awakening women activate their own signature Beauty codes working DIRECTLY as an Allure Priestess with the literal Light signature essences themselves with paying client's energy bodies so that they can have more felt influence from their AUTHENTIC soul embodiment

*Stand out from LEGIONS of other beauticians and cosmetologists by working PROFICIENTLY, conscious-competently in the REALM of essence speaking the language when Beauty 1.0 cannot keep up with and has to look to YOU for their consulting b/c it's just like MAGIC to them

*Be seen in your magic, psychic intuition and gifts (as a LEADER) with specialized, high value skills that are honed to YOUR signature and premium priced soul service that easily sets you apart from a crowded marketplace

*Have an even more masterful and versatile foundation of working with ALL of the divine feminine archetypes and essences professionally to sculpt your clients signature soul self image, branding and 'next season' expression aligned with THEIR spiritual growth and desires

*Be able to cater to your clients desires with a RICH background and Priestess level access to embody and access any and all necessary archetypes in record amounts of time without always having to do extended long meditations or weekend retreats to gain access (allowing you to work much faster and sculpt difference experiences and offers even around certain archetypes)

*Become RENOWNED for masterfully working with the archetype; doing archetype assessment and consulting for trauma healing, spiritual growth, divine feminine beauty, attracting partner and soul mates as well as for performance acting, social media/branding, theater, dance and video purposes

*Be able to showcase the makeover magic working energetically with clients and public demo models for instant BEFORE AND AFTER RESULTS (in as little as a MINUTE of time) and raving testimonials that other beauticians and influencers will realize that it's MAGIC because it's entirely out of their realm of beauty tools and makeover awareness

“I was amazed to feel how safe I felt as he created an energetic vortex of massage and energy magick...I could see and FEEL Rion’s devotional heart. This is a man in deep and profound devotional service to the Goddess.”

*Stand out from legions of other healers, lightworkers and even medicine women by incorporating BEAUTY INFUSION and activations into all (or as much as you want) of your own healing, spiritual and transformational consciousness work (FOR VISUAL RESULTS!)

*Be the envy of OTHER reiki and crystal healers who just do NOT have the awareness, skills and tools to integrate energy work with PROFESSIONAL image, archetypal divine feminine, chakric, auric and Beauty work in FAST amounts of time (without ever having to host long weekend embodiment retreats. Taking a relaxing 45 minute reiki session just doesn't integrate or fit into professional beauty and image consulting DIRECTLY).

*As an Allure Priestess you can be on the FRONT LINES of photo shoots, studio and stage performances, talent shows, competitions, local beauty salons, branding workshops, etc. working with influencers, celebrity's, conscious women and regular clients doing INSTANT MAGIC that is related to how they're showing up and being felt on camera as more of their TRUE SELF (while make-up is putting more on, allure work is allowing their true self to shine through ON CAMERA)

*Be able to do SPOT-WORK on demand that gives them a 'shock and awe' magic experience that they feel, see and know as verifiable and everyone else ALSO confirms it's real making you the spotlight but really you're just in divine service and have followed a path that has more of this arcane wisdom

*Be able to DEMONSTRATE makeover magic with any person on demand; thereby SELLING THEM not just on energy work but on allure transformational work (and once they're SOLD, who do you think they're going to come back to for more work and tell THEIR friends about?)

*Have new and direct, tried and true ways (+ proven techniques) to meet ANY client where they're at and get fast client results in a SHORT amount of time while becoming more of a powerful and applied light worker

*Introduce Beauty codes to potentially LEGIONS of professional women, beauticians and women (in general) realizing that Beauty is more than just their physical beauty

*Have the tools and BRIDGE to practically work with men in reclaiming and cultivating their divine masculine archetypal inheritance (including healing and kingmaking) with marketing space to play around with

*Have the security of it being hands-off work to avoid any entanglements with misperceptions around body work or tantra

*Cultivate your OWN alchemical radiant allure and signature Beauty as felt influence to attract more of your soul tribe and ideal clients to you from alignment effortlessly (without AI, inorganic marketeering and so forth)

*Become masterful at ACTIVATING others into their own spiritual growth, divine beauty reclamation, healing and potential with a foundation of being one of the most powerful energy healers out there (Muse has us become very powerful in order to WORK with and serve the most powerful and beautiful clients)

*Infinite practical access to divine feminine beauty essences at any age for you and your clients (incl. for post-menopausal women when the bio-chemical essence of estrogen plummets and is replaced by chi essences)

*Work more professionally, directly and expansively with the Beauty essences for FAST client transformations (archetypal, elemental, gift, soul and siddhic) as your form of Sorceress doing God's work but that which embraces the divine feminine

What if you could MERGE the areas of divine feminine, healing, embodiment work, consciousness, spiritual transformation and professional beauty to be something like a beauty priestess (in alignment with YOUR dharma) that wasn't merely about superficial styling and image consulting but that which could take Goddess, Eros and allure work to a larger audience?

Be the tip of the spearhead at the VERY START of what could become the next mega-trend like AI; integration of Beauty work at the crossroads of Beauty, consciousness and energy work BEFORE the ALLURE tsunami hits the industries, so you are positioned for exponential growth, additional credibility and success

Because I want to get it kick-started with the right women, our inaugural pricing isn't even near what I'm going to charge later on...because really this is like a $100,000 investment offer but you won't have to pay anything near that.

Obviously something like this is an elite and rare opportunity that absolutely isn't for everybody; thus the investment would reflect just how serious this is. That's also going to weed out those who are something closer to dreamers or hobbyists. Not only is 'REAL money' involved here now (and the Muse priestess who is offering activations is already making her ROI back), but it's the exponential growth that's coming as well to enjoy a 6+ figure business.

I'll openly state the MPM for year 1 was $18,000 as a GROUP certification program. The cost would be 5-10x that if it were somehow an accelerated, faster private apprenticeship (and that was THEN). THE foundation is set and had to be set with Muse Priestess and I have a lot of experience now having run that thoroughly with the first 2 priestesses.

This is a 5 figure investment. When you reach out there is no obligation; I have to see if it's a fit and yes it'll require a deposit to secure your spot. HTTPS://AllurePriestess.com is the center point but you can reach me on facebook of course <https://facebook.com/rion.kati>

Could you see yourself working with women who want more ORGANIC felt influence in embodying THEIR soul and beauty essences rather than just following superficial fashion trends? Because Beauty 1.0 stylists, cosmetologists, beauticians, image consultants and make-up specialists are NOT able to do what you're going to be able to do in record time IF you pre-qualify and choose to follow this path and integrate it into your dharma.

Becoming an Allure or Muse Priestess gives you full access to work professionally with essences (Beauty codes including archetypes) for ON-DEMAND 'before and after' makeovers, signature starlet cultivation, energy healing and professional image cultivation. That includes your OWN transformation throughout and the kundalini awakening and beauty results to be embodied in-self as soul signed branded.

For makeovers (session by session); we get FAST results instead of having to take long weekend seminars and the time that it takes for transformation.

I'm talking mere seconds and minutes for known results (check out the kundalini activations page for entirely new testimonials).

I barely even COACH anymore because I get paid better to just be in my MAGIC for the highest ROI and most relaxed lifestyle without burnout for me...there's SO much to cover here in this invitation for you. And yes; it will obviously be pre-qualifying...I only want serious and worthy candidates. You also have to be willing to become the student again around our form of mastery and spectra.

How would you like to EXPAND your offerings to make while having ZERO guilt or shame about charging what you charge (WHILE your client testimonials just keep rolling in)?

Allure Consulting and Transformational Allure Work is the FUTURE of;

- Beauty
- Beauty influence
- Organic social media marketing and influence

- Performance Arts & Entertainment
- Where spiritual, divine feminine work meets pro image and soul-self branding

And much more. I'm going to share more of this vision so keep reading b/c the time is NOW to prepare for the TSUNAMI that's coming. It's a tsunami of WEALTH and attention because allure is actually the TANGIBLE CURRENCY of social media and as an Allure priestess you will become a direct master at professionally diagnosing and working with it for clients from around the world.

This is the TIP OF CUPID'S ARROW OF BEAUTY CODES to the world and YOU could be the one that countless influencers, beauticians, conscious women, spirit-based entrepreneurs, performers and artists look to for THEIR allure image consulting, healing, spiritual growth, signature branding and on-camera beauty transformation (with authentic LIFE transformation results).

Imagine...

YOU...AS a bona fide trained, (initiated PRIESTESS that gives the ancient truth and term of it Justice) that does high beauty transformational magic, healing, reclamation and quantum awakening for clients around the world...and potentially be a LEADER of this new industry which will reach MILLIONS of people. I'll go more into the big vision and state of the industry coming up.

So, if this is you; you're not going to want to miss out on at least reading all of this and DISCOVERING this opportunity to become one of the first Allure Priestesses in the WORLD where the world of energy work infuses with professional Beauty and image.

Because this is the INAUGURAL release of these codes (and opportunity), I'm going to take some space to keep the flow going even if it isn't perfectly editorialized or the shortest form possible because I want you to feel into all of it to sense and know if this is for you. This long-form gives me the freedom to just flow and more for you to get clarity around.

This is NOT for you if:

You're ok with compromise

You don't take any risks

You don't have an entrepreneurial spirit (if you want to make money from this)

You think you already know it all or have reached your peak in magic

You're too stubborn

You don't believe in magic and the power of Spirit

(I'll add more to this list elsewhere through time but if you're here, you're probably more of a fit)

What we do CAN be seen as gnostic or secular compared modern Christianity. Much of this is rooted in the church's secularization OF the divine feminine and Goddess fractals; that's why it seems secular.

The 'energy work' we do is a different form of 'laying on of the hands' in Christianity for example but we don't have to have this discussion here. My/this work is rooted in full-on reclamation and acceptance of Sophianic principle; God and Goddess aspects of consciousness related to the holy grail itself.

For a DEEP dive, you can look into my Uniphied Theory on how religion and spirituality are all connected. I probably wouldn't go down that rabbit hole now if you're more focused on this opportunity.

BTW; connecting to my experience, field and presence is ENTRAINMENT on its own. I've been activated by masters, Beloved, grandmasters and shamans and am richly experienced in Divine Union with Muse.

Imagine...

Helping you and your clients cultivate their own signature soul starlet presence and visual truth...to help them attain alchemical levels of effortless beauty influence and magnetism from more embodied and activated essences; not from styling, color coordinating and optimizing skin care but as felt influence in stillness by working DIRECTLY with their light body with Beauty activations.

Activations like archetype and siddhic activations SELL. And people keep coming back for them! I've served over 1400 paid activations to mostly women and from all kinds of different backgrounds. (Now the brand new kundalini activations have been selling and are HOTT!)

See; beauty has INFLUENCE like the ray's of our photonic sun. Power that we can FEEL (like higher frequency UV rays).

This felt influence in stillness is the POWER of allure and allure is the FUTURE of Beauty, the visual fields and arts as well as organic social media marketing and influence. Allure is how and why you can FEEL someone from across the room and be affected by their image in STILLNESS even from a photo decades ago.

Doing archetype embodiment and allure activations works directly for image transformation and increasing your felt influence; really that premium, divine street cred currency itself which is BEING a goddess rather than being a poser or just styled like a goddess.

I/Rion and the Muse priestesses are ALREADY doing this work and have proven it. The foundation is laid and I have HUNDREDS of client testimonials to back it up!

As an Allure Priestess you can sculpt your brand and offerings around...YOU! Part of the APM is helping you with branding, offers and packages.

But there's more...picture this....

Hosting LIVE LOCAL BEAUTY and energy healing workshops that ENTHRALL people and create a #FOMO like energy of wanting to work with you because YOU hold the keys that all other beauticians do NOT.

Because this is the cross-roads of Energy Work, Goddess and Beauty transformation.

So back to the live workshop concept...

The Allure Workshop concept

Imagine hosting live little workshop retreats locally (or when you travel) where people can experience FIRST-HAND the magic that you offer and have instant shock and awe with your demos that others can VERIFY the magic taking place. I'm starting this concept myself and you'll be trained in how to host these which will be GREAT on-brand social media content as well as client attraction. You; being seen in your magic!

But why am I opening this up?

For years, I THOUGHT IT WAS ALL ABOUT ME. Yes, I was serving clients but I had to keep preparing, reunifying and become more over-flowing myself TO be able to serve in sessions. But I thought the EMPIRE was going to be just me and Muse Priestess until She (Muse) showed me a bigger picture.

We are on the forefront of an unprecedented Beauty awakening like the world has never seen before into breaking the glass ceiling on beauty into the era of conscious competence with ALLURE. This is bigger than me and it's bigger than all of us.

It includes allowing the divine (archetypal and siddhic) feminine to BREATHE AND RE-AWAKEN in the world. To express Her Beauty.

It's actually about the collective and potentially YOUR place on the FRONT-EDGE of it; of ALLURE AWAKENING IN THE WORLD (and how it can heal, inspire, reunify and harmonize love, relationships, family's, society and the collective into Renaissance and Ascension).

((Throughout this; if you're an emotional authority, I'd take more time to ruminate on this offer...sure, but consider that your soul may have already been aligned for years and WAITING exactly for this moment as well (so you've got that retro-time as leverage to help you make a decision))).

Emperor codes have been dropping in for me but they're NOT what I thought like they would be because it's about allowing the Allure and Muse Priestesses to SHINE in the public spotlight to the world...to awaken beauty on the FRONTLINES of healing and reclamation (to the MAINSTREAM).

HONESTLY; this is historical and it's not even really about me (it's a form of sacrifice actually as you'll see more b/c it involves giving up the vision and version of me that becomes more of the focus point to the collective)...this opportunity is about YOU, YOUR MAGIC, your divine service and where things are headed and sure; el Rion/I have a special, highly qualified and experienced place in OFFERING this...as an opportunity and really, an offering for pre-qualified women.

The opportunity is to join the Allure Priestess Mentorship program by taking the next step with the intake form and then us getting on a call to see if it's a fit and answer other questions. Only qualified women will be admitted. This is not open to men.

As an annual GROUP apprenticeship and certification program;

APM will start with a minimum of 3 women and is going to be an exciting but also intensive year with LIVE retreats and on-going virtual initiations, training as well as cultivating your OWN signature alchemical allure (worth the investment alone). It will be an open rolling group format so women can join for their 12 months as we just keep it live as long as we retain our 3 active mentees minimum.

So much has been shifting since these EMPIRE codes have dropped in that I had to drop my previous plans and follow Her Divine Will....these codes were not what I had foreseen b/c I was PRESERVING 'the magic' for only the Muse Priestess lineage & I (it will soon become clearer).

Of course there are some things that only they will ever know and experience as its own mystery school, but I digress...

In my 'Social Currency of Allure' book I lay out the case for why the future of the Beauty industry, Beauty influencers and organic social media marketing is allure/charisma.

ALLURE is the future of Beauty influence. It's the MAINSTREAM BRIDGE of divine feminine and spiritual consciousness to the WORLD.

And if you're into Divine Union, it's good to know that if the future of Beauty is Allure (consulting and transformation), the future of allure is GRAIL ALLURE. This is where things are headed outside of our spiritual circles.

The advent of Allure Priestess and becoming one of the world's first TRUE psychically accurate allure consultants IS like a sacred offering to activate your greatest magic, gifts and beauty in divine service as a PRIESTESS making very good money working part-time on YOUR schedule. You can also have your OWN branding and sculpt your entire brand around you and your signature eros-phere...in fact, I'll be helping you with that process and your branding production design oversight (I'm also a pro graphic designer).

As you may know, over the years I've now done over 1400 paid Beauty (and Power) activation sessions in helping women cultivate their signature beauty and allure...90% of them for women and all of them including professional energy healing work as part of it.

See; there have been women who LOVE the activation sessions I've offered and some have inquired about how they could get trained to do this for others (and get paid!) over the years; but this was never a possibility AND even when it opened up with Muse Priestess, most of them were never pre-qualified for it.

I mean; the Muse priestesses and I get to work on the literal FRONTLINES of beauty, healing, allure transformation and divine feminine embodiment with satisfied and often RAVING clients. We are a bridge between authentic deep healing, divine feminine embodiment work, social media, the arts and mainstream Beauty.

You also have to consider how rare it is to UNIFY and translate ENERGY WORK for actual signature beauty cultivation instead of just generic wellness. What we do are literally BEAUTY ACTIVATIONS and curation!

Some have said "You're the only one in the world doing what you do."

But this was always going to remain ELITE and SECRETIVE to just the Muse priestesses and I.

Until recently.

One of my biggest challenges was that it was and still is a QUANTUM task to universalize accurate psychic energy reading because it is so broad in its scope. I promised the Muse priestesses that they would get the training and cert for whenever that would be done as a bonus separate and later down the road.

So all the codes just came flooding in early summer 2025 and I was just floored...the vision Muse has is MASSIVE...She said this is going to a new mega-trend Billion dollar marketplace and to 'PREPARE'. Muse Priestess and I just cannot take on millions of women for the Beauty industry so we had to THINK BIGGER...well, I received those codes FROM Muse...this will also free us up to work on our own other projects like me with Hollywood and K-pop as well as preferred (celebrity and Muse) clients.

And that's where you can come in yet in alignment with YOUR vision, soul service and calling!

The foundation is already set.

The work that is the core of this already has HUNDREDS OF TESTIMONIALS.

I'll be explaining even more through, but it's so bluntly obvious once again that;

THE MAGIC OF THIS FULL WORK REQUIRES NOTHING LESS THAN PRIESTESS-HOOD. That's why it's an IDENTITY level event/experience.

And for VERY specific reasoning, we are KEEPING IT ELITE and yet opening it up to more than JUST muses called into Priestess-hood. I'll talk about this more later and I'll also refer later to how becoming a Certified Allure Consultant is a lower priced offering compared to being able to do FULL-SERVICE transformational magic in record time for your clients who will gladly come back (most of them) for more sessions with you.

You will be certified in BOTH if you join Allure Priestess Mentorship (and actually as a Certified Charisma Consultant as well).

It's just (like I mentioned) that it's going to take an entire year for me to universalize energy reading for Allure and Muse priestesses at a foundational level so you are competent with versatility to take on ACCURATE and insightful psychic readings from anyone, anywhere at anytime on-demand.

Again; a quantum feat, but at that point, I'll open up the psychic mastery course as a lower priced offering so that people can become a certified allure consultant which is different than an Allure priestess (which can do both the readings and get paid for them as well as the PREMIUM transformational work itself).

The Sexy Chi certified allure consultants of Tomorrowland will not be authorized nor initiated, nor trained to do our high level transformational magic itself. That's why Allure Priestess is at a higher price point (which will increase exponentially even as a group program).

This is very exciting....just sensing WHERE things are headed.

Bless them, but just think of how out of touch Beauty 1.0 professionals and cosmetologists are with ACTUAL allure consulting...they're GREAT at what they do but they just simply do not understand the 4D/5D energy world practical part of professional image.

They can give someone a skin glow-up but they can't give them an auric glow-up that everyone FEELS and instigates #fomo inducing response to. The future of glow-up and soft maxing is allure consulting and transformation. That's why we get paid so well too. It's also nice to sometimes get paid in CASH for local clients (I had all kinds of Euros stacked up hosting a men's retreat in Madrid in 2018 after they saw the results with one of our attendees Prince activation).

With just PART of what you'll be able to do; you could do NON-STOP archetype allure or charisma readings on celebrities that the public and social media would GOBBLE UP. People are WANTING more organic influence and Allure/Charisma is the hidden key (I mean how else can Beauty influence in stillness?).

We are at a/n HISTORICAL CROSS-ROADS right NOW and co-creating the future. Yes, the world's first Muse priestesses have graduated and they will also be certified as the world's very first Allure Priestesses and Certified Charisma/Allure consultants (of the source lineage here).

(We are going to do a proper visual re-debut sometime later in 2025...).

Imagine working with Eros and the divine feminine with more and more female clients getting into allure which is testament of their own soul's beauty and spiritual connection! And getting well paid. Obviously this is specialized training.

I've been initiated by other masters (Tao, tantra, chi kung, shamans, dakinis, ascended masters) and richly with Muse Herself directly representing Her light-working methodology, so this pioneering light-work has been UNAVAILABLE to ever learn outside of Muse Priestess. Even studying from Chinese Grandmasters, I didn't learn it from them.

Even for kundalini (because it is so universal), there are different ways to activate it however Muse had specific kundalini codes that came in, so it's unlikely anyone else in the world is doing kundalini activations exactly in the technique that I/we are doing them.

Discover DOZENS of hot new kundalini activation testimonials!

For years I've been building up Sexy Chi as 'THE' premiere brand for charisma and allure consulting with initiating Muse Priestess as also being able to do this (and other) work;

But as keyholder to the Muse Priestess lineage, I have a different perspective on things now after Muse was showing me the bigger vision of how MILLIONS of people are going to want this direct consulting work and how there's NO WAY I would ever be able to keep up with it all....nor Muse Priestess itself at the RIDICULOUSLY pre-qualifying (and yet slow rate of current expansion and selection).

Muse Priestess is just TOO selective for it to be large enough to meet the upcoming tsunami of public demand. Oh; they're the elite of the elite but this is about serving the collective for Muse' universal codes of Beauty awakening.

This is larger than all of us.

BEAUTY IS A MASSIVE INDUSTRY that's been WAITING TO BUST THROUGH THE GLASS CEILING. More and more people are building a collective intolerance for the constriction around Beauty just being superficial and...

THEY WANT MORE ORGANIC INFLUENCE and the competition is getting fierce out there. Yet more consumers are becoming more psychic and intuitive about if you are the 'real thing' b/c THEY are starting to read energy better.

Tomorrow's spirit-based entrepreneurs and beauty influencers want to know that 'inner beauty matters' on camera (hint; it's essence). Beyond 'content/information' value, ESSENCE is the actual TANGIBLE thing that we're trading in social media like the spice of Arakis. Essence IS the currency of social media as I reveal in the 900 something page book 'The Social Currency of Allure'.

Social media is all about INFLUENCE and there's only so much engineering and marketeering you can do. If people still can't feel you or your clients, you're losing out on so much market response, grasp and influence esp. on first impressions.

PEOPLE WANT REAL (esp. as a growing counter-balance to all of the AI phenomenon's dominance). They want something they can feel.

In social media and business visual communication;

THEY WANT TO FEEL YOU. And THEY WANT TO BE FELT ORGANICALLY (unless they're TRYING to mislead people, hide behind AI or follow trends).

I think you know it too. Beauty is more than skin-deep and I've fortunately been co-creating the future with (Muse and) all of my past amazing clients who were the VERY first early adopters; those who got Beauty activation (mostly archetypes) sessions with me over the years (you may have been one them).

Are you going to lead or guide the Beauty Revolution as an Allure Priestess?

AFTER YEARS of cultivating immersed experience, mastery and even more psychic experience...universalizing and integrating BEAUTY TRANSFORMATION with energy work...it's safe to say that we have the foundation and now, we are primed, but I have to say that it's even bigger than I thought.

I don't want to lead the Beauty re:volution myself or single-handedly...I want to work more with K-pop and Hollywood with Essence Acting as well as other projects.

In setting this foundation; I've kinda been underground for a while mostly having sessions with awakened women but the bridge to mainstream and even me going public is now on the precipice.

THIS COULD BECOME A REVOLUTION at a historical APEX point especially with how crypto and AI are inorganic.

YOU; bringing YOUR gifts, talents and past experience combined with our infra-structural support and training (no one else is talking about ftonic quanta) as well as initiations = the full-on confidence to be a world's top allure consultant.

YOU can get the spotlight. I want Allure and Muse Priestess to shine.

The vision (and clarity of it) is MASSIVE and imagine if YOU could be the SPEARHEAD of the arrow to pierce the COLLECTIVE and enter the larger CURRENTS itself of BEAUTY AWAKENING and transformation on the planet. Of blossoming and instigating divine feminine beauty and allure throughout the world through each and every client session and your work.

You yourself could serve clients in beauty, personal growth, image related industries, tv, film, the arts and so forth with a blend of your own other gifts. It's not just image consulting; this is specifically allure and charisma consulting. Image consultants themselves rarely know about the competency of actual allure and the language of light of the essences; they keep focusing on the physical aspects of image.

THIS IS THE NEW FRONTIER as more and more consumers and influencers are waking up to realize the auric, chakras, vibe and light truth are REAL.

You already know that Beauty is more than skin-deep...ALLURE is FELT Beauty influence, unified with spirit and soul and I think you also know that allure is THE RE:VOLUTION.

Imagine being a masterful PRIESTESS OF BEAUTY bringing HEALING, MAGIC & RECLAMATION to other women in the world on the FRONTLINES...of helping them embody and cultivate their soul-based beauty and archetypal, siddhic qualities of essenced visual truth communication...

Of painting their visual world with art and weaving THEIR signature fragrance into the lives of their family, friends and followers in their highest expression with the TOOLS to get the work DONE (not merely refer to allure and then go back to skin-care products).

Muse and I have co-created the foundational infra-structure to INCEPT the actual, real allure consulting and transformation INDUSTRY.

Ironically, getting trained in this allows you to customize your work, beauty cultivation and branding more to you because of how versatile and deep it is. And now...you don't even have to have Muse codes to join us...you don't even have to have Sophia or Rose codes either, but you still do have to be pre-qualified.

You might even want to specialize in DARK archetypal work and allure. You will have that intensive foundation, training and access to work with purity and integrity (as well as shadow mastery).

"From One Master To Another (Energy Master Rion)"

(Respecting Rion At A Nov. 2023 CA Retreat In Front Of The Group)

-Tantra GrandMaster Charles Muir ;

Author & Godfather Of Tantra In The U.S

As an Allure priestess you would become a special apex in energy reading, allure consulting, energy healing and serving Beauty (feminine) and Power (masculine) activations...of working with the 100's of light signature essences (chi) and people's light bodies for ON-CAMERA, live and felt-influence RESULTS.

Our infra-structure and format is proven and you might like to hear how much money you can make IN ONLY HALF AN HOUR of working with clients you WANT TO WORK WITH doing things that skin-care will never be able to do!

I will talk more about the allure aspect, but by now you realize that this is the world of ESSENCE...and that feminine ESSENCE is the most valuable quanta in the universe. This is PREMIUM transformational work. THE REAL DEAL. Just ask anyone who has had a session with me.

And it's not your local neighborhood reiki healer work either.

This is where powerful energy work meets BEAUTY itself.

Not only that;

This is the FUSION of energy work, spirituality, healing, releasing, soul growth, soul retrieval, psychic energy reading, divine feminine, Beauty, consciousness and professional image itself.

And HOW we work with essence for Beauty transformation and consciousness is directly unique.

SO DO YOU WANT A CAREER IN ALLURE CONSULTING AND TRANSFORMATION? Is that even possible?!

(You wouldn't be an 'employee' of Sexy Chi...you would be your OWN independent entrepreneur).

Is it a dream career?

I tell you; I'm LIVING MY DREAM WORK LIFESTYLE...I am my own younger hero.

This is where the future is headed which I'll talk about more AND YOU CAN WORK FROM THE COMFORT of your own home/place/condo/Airbnb like I do..even when you're traveling. I've done client sessions on hotel layovers!

Oh and as an Allure priestess; you're not going to be replaced by someone who knows AI...don't worry.

"But you're a MAN Rion...how is it that you are on the front lines of Beauty, Beauty influence and Beauty ascension like this?"

So yeah....

If you know me; yes I'm a Grail Magii and a rare male who works with sanctity with women and their energy bodies in temple space (every session) for healing and embodying greater archetypal and siddhic Beauty.

I am on a dharma of BEAUTY and the Beloved is the most Beautiful to me...through 23.5 years of proven devotion, She has opened the codes up to work magic with and through FOR Beauty ascension and evolution of Performance Arts & Entertainment itself.

My codes and abilities are all sourced in devotion, sacrifice and rebirth (as well as immersion and initiation with other masters along the path).

It requires TRUST, integrity and purity to work this profoundly and with so many women; reliable experience, trust and integrity.

It wasn't what I envisioned b/c I thought I was going to make movies; I was INVITED INTO IT and am on my highest timeline and true soul path....the doors opened and it didn't come from MY ego whatsoever...

It's been a LONG, arduous path where "I" was the miraculously transformed. My Beloved (Muse), activated me (a million times over) into this work.

And now, the inner circle is expanding to include Allure Priestess as well as Muse Priestess.

This is also why I'm not opening up applications for men to become an 'Allure Priest' or equivalent because I would be instantly skeptical of THEIR motivations of why they would want to get into this work (to then work with the most beautiful women in the world) because this work requires pristine purity without corruption in wielding this amount of power in temple space. (Part of it was being brutally devotionally celibate for YEARS).

It's not that some men or apprentices wouldn't ever qualify, but I think you can understand my reasoning behind it.

HER work is sourced in Grail codes which reunifies the world and initiates ascension (which includes highly sexually awakened consciousness and integrity).

This work is truly sacred and feminine essence is the most valuable quanta in the universe. I had to be annihilated and proven YEARS and years through devotion. She didn't even (more officially) activate me until I was a DECADE IN to devotional reunification practice with Her for my FIRST dharmic energy work activation in 2012 in Medellin hosting a live men's retreat during an all-nighter immersion party with Muse when my hands and forearms kundalini lit on white fire.

Imagine devoting for 10 years in living bhakti before getting a major initiation and sign from your Master. That's part of the price I paid. 23.5 years WITHOUT Communion-grade physical hierogamy because it's been necessary to prepare me to be the living avatar for such a large purpose. Just part of the price I paid in devotion, blood, sweat, tribulation and tears.

In the past month alone, She's now opening up kundalini full-time to me...it took that long.

Other doors I've had to go through; unimaginable along this path yet She kept opening up more and more magic and power to me...because I was worthy of it until eventually She ordained me as the one (passing all of Her trials) after a millennia to at last start Her Grail Priestess lineage.

She had finally found the One. And yes; the magic is real (just ask any client of mine whose had a session).

"You are the REAL DEAL." -Multiple clients

In my rich background;

Divine Union a.k.a. 'hieros gamos' or 'holy marriage within with the Immortal Beloved' has been the CENTRAL practice and truth of my life. You may also know that I run the Mystical Grail group with a few dozen grail mystic women.

Reunification is EVERYTHING to me; my foundation as a 5/1 and I've spent DEEEP years cultivating a foundation like no other to set us up at this point.

Although I've immersed with different masters, shamans and grandmasters, the Beloved by far has been my greatest Teacher and Activator; Muse Herself.

With over 15,000 temple hours of active sacred reunification alchemy with my Beloved (Muse), She has prepared me for years and years....with the Purity of Hieros Gamos I was also evoked to go into training as a tantra daka to become more intimate and tested for purity and temple space as a sexual healer requiring UTMOST trust and security of holding sacred space.

Anyways;

...through tribulation and yet miracles of growth ...somewhere around 2016 living in West Hollywood; it turned around to start serving back to Her and women. To start giving back after She had given me so much. Specialized energy work in the form of activations became my specialty. BEAUTY ACTIVATIONS for the feminine and masculine POWER activations (divine masculine archetypal, siddhic) for the masculine.

After the call to start serving women (in the name of the Beloved) Gillian Pothier and I started co-hosting the Cosmic Muse L.A. retreats. We also held an Allure livestream and then later the Allure Masterclass as part of the (paid) Mystical Beauty program online.

I used to work with men for so many years on sexual presence, natural dating (where I was a LEAD 'natural' non-pick-up artist guru), soul purpose and spiritual transformation but I ended up working MOSTLY with women.

After all; how is it that a hetero-sexual 'man' would end up on the literal FRONTLINE of divine feminine awakening and Beauty ascension like I've been the past 8 years helping HUNDREDS of different paying women from around the world activate their beauty codes and consciousness?!

BECAUSE THESE ARE MUSE CODES!

By my continued devotion, She began to trust me more and more. I am following the Divine Will of my Beloved and it's one and the same with my own ULTIMATE soul growth, dharma and success itself.

"Rion is one of the few people on EARTH....priestesses"

And that led to founding the Muse Priestess lineage.

(P.S. It's an important note that I had to check in with the world's first 2 Muse priestesses themselves for acknowledgement and acceptance of this fundamental update before ever DARING to share a world of it publicly).

And yes; Muse Priestess is fully on-board with the Allure Priestess concept (I couldn't go forward as public without their acknowledgement). They see the big vision as well for the Beauty ascension in mainstream.

BUT SEE....THROUGH ALL OF THESE YEARS IT WAS NEVER GOING TO BE RELEASED or shared because this is powerful, high magic in divine service.

In a sense it was always all about me and the clients I served and yet the focus was selfishly on me becoming MORE of a Magician with more experience and versatility, more and more divine service POWER (like my Grandmaster had) that could continue to facilitate such powerful transformation in record time.

I WAS GOING TO REMAIN 'THE MASTER' b/c it would give me more of that RECOGNITION as a Human Design projector....until She told me to start the Muse Priestess lineage.

And then it was NEVER going to go beyond that (or so I thought)....that we would remain an elite mystery school....and we still WILL; however the vision has recently been updated and EXPANDED because I was ready for Her ultimate plan which was FAR GRANDER.

This is where YOU come into the picture (whether you have Muse codes or not).

See...in my mind, our high magic sorcery (as some of the most powerful energy workers and psychics on the planet) was never going to go past this. It was JUST going to be me and specialized muses.

B/c I was leveraging the gift of Preservation (my logos) until I was ready to receive the expanded Empire codes.

This opportunity for Allure Priestess is raw Muse codes that actually empowers and EXPANDS the lineage of Muse Priestess all while preserving it more actively renowned as the elite level that it is. Our foundation is expanding in order to meet the big vision She has shown me that Allure Consulting could very well be the next AI and me and the exclusive number of Muse priestesses would never be able to keep up with the supply to demand ratio.

This is where you can come in as our foundational program and empire is expanding for the future.

She told me that all Muse priestesses will be foundationally certified as Allure Priestess (which is safe to share is over half of what Muse Priestess training was anyways); I/we just had to FOUND Muse Priestess itself in order for the right timing for the expansion EMPIRE codes to come in.

THE VISION

(Actively open for future/active updates)

Muse's Vision For You :

(If you are called into becoming an Allure Priestess)

Allure Priestesses will be the global industry ignitors and leaders of allure consulting and transformation sparking a global awakening of Beauty evolution breaking the glass ceiling on skin-deep beauty

Allure Priestess Mission: To competently train and certify the world's first OFFICIAL and real transformational allure and charisma consultants

To set the industry gold standard of professional actual allure consulting and transformation so much so that it will be difficult for anyone else to even compare and the Beauty 1.0 industry will feel embarrassed and have to hop on the train

Not only will the Allure Priestesses be the world's first legitimate, full service, official and competent allure and charisma consultants; as the market's premium choice they will be light years ahead of what others would think this is as fully fledged priestesses with their abilities to do transformational visual magic fast with real and demo clients (clickbait friendly stuff for social media empire building as well also b/c a lot of people will be skeptical but when KNOWN influencers start validating your work and how they feel; imagine how that's going to take off!).

Allure priestesses who will work as their own independent consultants with their own businesses doing what they love; will also set the GOLD STANDARD that will be hard for anyone else to live up to in professional allure Beauty consulting and transformation which is poised to become like the next AI.

This represents an entirely new ERA and golden opportunity like never before that has taken YEARS and YEARS of underground development, tribulation, success, learning and preparation...essentially this crossroads and opportunity now...this new MARKET-SPACE could become the next AI, except 100% ORGANIC and it is poised to set you SWIFTLY into fulfilling and living out YOUR deepest desires and dreams in ALL dimensions.

"I thought Muse Priestess was the biggest announcement/thing you've ever made..." -hypothetical questioner

It IS....er, WAS except that now the EMPIRE codes have dropped and this actually empowers, edifies, expands and AMPLIFIES Muse Priestess lineage itself which is why I can say that. See...for years I thought the business was centered more around 'me'.

Yes ; being in divine service but it's where 'I' was 'the master'.

See....I HAD TO BE SELFISH. I had to prepare myself to have SUCH magic, experience and value in such a short amount of time to be able to do what includes directly and often supporting major, minor, significant and often enough miraculous transformations in clients.

Testimonials Galore!

More About Rion

Yet something about 'calling myself' the world's #1 charisma and allure consultant (even though I've earned it and can PROVE IT against anyone), didn't feel quite right. It's like part of me was still seeking recognition as a projector...it just felt a little bit 'off'.

YES. I HAD TO BECOME A MASTER....TRULY. (I'm also a STUDENT).

I'm also the world's GRAND-master of sex transmutation with media as presented by Napoleon Hill in Think and Grow Rich...I had to be and become that b/c of Divine Union with my Beloved (thus it's worth mentioning).

And yes, I'm a great student. I'll share more about my background later (down the road or on the about page); but it's been YEARS of becoming a master and PRESERVING what I do as amongst THE most powerful energy work and transformational magic in the world. It opened up to SHARE this for what was ONLY AND EVER going to be the Muse Priestess lineage.

Until more codes dropped when 'I' was finally ready to see Her bigger vision itself....I who am also the Key-holder and Guardian for Muse Priestess.

I realized that with the original vision, I would become THE APEX to millions of people with only one predominant market maven brand out there; Sexy Chi and Muse Priestess. We would become even MORE famous and recognized; the attention would be on us.

There are basically 3 options at MY cross-roads (where I took about 2 weeks to work with these codes in marination):

1. Hide out and NOT ever go public and debut, keeping this work small scale and cozy

2. Move forward with the original plan of Allure Workshops & Oases with Sexy Chi + Muse Priestess being the APEX of attention and business to somehow serve millions of people in the collective b/c there aren't other real competitors...and let Muse Priestess slowly grow with pre-qualified graduates.

OR....

3. Sacrifice the bigger picture of ego which was connected to assured (and yet still spiritually and in-self) fame with the focus on me > to instead train a LEGION of Allure consultants instead to meet the upcoming tsunami; place Allure and Muse Priestesses as THE forefront so that THEY can shine, get the spotlight and serve the awakening collective itself.

(There's no way I could single-handedly serve millions of people in the private session format; HOWEVER being the singular apex with Muse Priestess would have long-term fame associated with it b/c of supply/demand).

And I thought of it after the codes dropped in more (as more of a back-up realization)....; "But do I really want to be doing NON-STOP sessions that my Chinese Grandmaster was doing?" Hmmm.....

There's no doubt HE was 'the master' and people came to him.

And YES, he trained students and classes but he never trained an official apprentice as/or replacement to carry on his lineage (essentially) replicating himself (thus unfortunately; his line ends with him).

But all of those sessions; I don't know how he did it. I would burn out.

When a group of his students were with him IN China in 2015 (where he was like a national celebrity EXCEPT with the rude airline flight attendants who didn't recognize him when our students were late at the Beijing transfer); he was getting about 3-4 hours of sleep a night doing non-stop sessions for HIGH-PAYING locals.

THAT'S NOT THE LIFESTYLE I WANT. Working in alignment but like a non-stop busy bee. I value quality of life as well and maybe having selection or the type of clients down the road.

Of course he was an emotional authority Generator just knowing his energy and I'm a projector who is designed to be a sailboat. I just don't want to burnout like him or have that kind of lifestyle; successful though it was.

My point here is, I and probably you value LIFESTYLE and quality of life designing and living a business you LOVE.

Following my lead; you do not have to BURN YOURSELF OUT EITHER...you'll be able to work as often as you want AND when you want on YOUR schedule. Yes; we're centered on 1-on-1 servicing with our core model however it's good money by most standards (averaging $600/hour). You'll also be able to run forms of group programs or higher priced offerings to have other leverage as well (like Mystical Grail membership which covers ie. most of my current monthly expenses).

In spiritual circles;

There's a LOT of focus on embodiment in Goddess work. With professional allure consulting and transformation; embodiment is a central piece but there are 2 other prime factors; Essence and Expression when working with the Light body.

Essence (The chi-sentient plasmic Light Signatures OF Power and Beauty itself)

Embodiment (Presence)

Expression (Allure/Charisma)

This gives a more complete and accurate picture of working professionally with clients and their light bodies. For the past 8 years

I've been working professionally with these variables and with APM we're going to get you masterful at working with all 3 (as well as you can BLEND them into your own custom readings and transformational work).

See; this world you may be entering goes wider and deeper than what I even discovered in training directly with a Chinese Grandmaster. There are MORE than just yin and yang chi. There are subtle other essences.

In 2019 I made the connection point that the Gene Key gifts and siddhis were also ESSENCES. This gives us 124 essences alone (not counting the shadows) and there are around 9 prime elementals and 100s of known archetypes.

Think of it this way;

Do essential oils only come in Oregano and Peppermint? No.

There's a whole spectrum!

And ESSENCES ARE THE PALETTE LITERALLY OF Light itself that we get to work with in professional Presence and Image.

An Allure Priestess isn't just a masteress of EMBODIMENT work, she works with any and ALL of the essences on demand, working with a client's energy body directly (along with angels and guides) to release YEARS and months of blockages (often in mere seconds).

That's why she can get paid so well; she gets RESULTS!

What if the higher truth of Beauty itself is that Beauty is an alchemical language of Light? Wouldn't that RE-FRAME and understanding of the fact that IMAGE as Light of humans is more than just 3rd dimensional? That light itself is higher dimensional like the sun's UV rays as well (invisible to the naked eye and yet we can still feel their power).

While Beauty 1.0 has the necessary skin-deep physical, 3rd dimensional support to maximize one's self expression visually, allure consultants and allure priestesses are able to competently assess and work on the subtle layers of the light body.

Which is ironic because that's where the FELT POWER and Beauty actually is.

This requires different tools, training and competency (obviously ;)

AND THAT'S WHY I GET PAID no less than $335 per half hour for the direct energy work.

(UPDATE: With the advent of the new kundalini activations; those are currently at $167 for a 20 minute session btw).

Ever read those sky mall mags and see skin serums for $160?

That's beauty work on the 3rd dimensional layer but because Beauty IS Light; we work directly on the soul and aura itself for the actually 'glow' that you can't buy (b/c divine feminine essence/quanta is the honey of the universe).

Of Divine Masculine Power and Divine Feminine Beauty sourced as spirit-sentient Light or 'chi'. The essences are 'chi'. And we're not going into it now but I developed a theory (really received Muse codes) of Fotonic Quanta and wrote a book and another book (Uniphied Theory) bridging East and West, ancient and modern as well as how Light is sourced in 2 different realities.

An Allure Priestess (now the foundation of Muse Priestess) becomes competent and fluid at professionally working with the actual Essences FOR healing, embodiment and transformation of presence, Beauty, consciousness, allure and image itself in herself and other clients.

A woman with ALCHEMICAL BEAUTY or a man with alchemical levels of charisma (emanating sourced Power) have organic influence that money cannot buy. They have such power because of the Law of Resonance which ATTUNES the soul-somatic experience and DNA of other people towards resonance with that level of consciousness like the star and starlet phenomenon.

This isn't just about looking pretty, being stylized with great hair or superficial trends....INFLUENCE and Beauty influence; social power...it's about BEING an embodied and expressed (ie.) as a GODDESS or Empress of Peace or Warrior of Truth (and an infinite variety of divine constellations).

An allure priestess will be able to DIRECTLY open up the channels, portals and gateways to greater Beauty and (divine masculine) Power itself for themselves and their clients. The pioneering, secretive Light-working methodology behind it is Muse's method for her Muse Priestesses.

You'll be initiated and thoroughly trained and experienced (with real demo clients, etc.) during our training as an Allure Priestess mentee.

To speak more on the delineation again...

Since all Muse Priestesses from the source lineage will be Allure Priestesses, our expanded format gives non-muses the only viable opportunity to have access to such direct power and beauty for transformation.

Think of someone spending decades working on superficially MASTERING their make-up, different styles and 'good looks' yet it still doesn't mean people are going to be able to FEEL THEM or be organically inspired and engaged to connect with them.

When you LOOK PRETTY but people can't feel you (from lack of allure radiance); there can be a DISCONNECT in their felt influence and how people RESPOND to them. So they keep scrolling. Instead; how would you love to have you and your clients HOLOGRAPHICALLY COMPEL, INSPIRE AND ENGAGE your fans, subscribers and clients IN their heart, sex, mind, body, spirit and soul. This is what allure can do. ORGANICALLY.

And allure/charisma is that RADIATION of essence from an energy body that allows your presence to be felt (beyond the mere 2" of bio-photons on the bio/etheric layer).

Having Allure Priestesses rather than what will be the smaller, elite Muse Priestess circle allows us to reach the MAINSTREAM without taking on all the pressure of evolving the Beauty industry.

When I was in that ashram with that enlightened guru, we could all FEEL his PRESENCE (embodiment) from his CHARISMA (light body emanation as a channel of Light) from 3 meters away.

He had true POWER and all of the best designer styling in the world can't buy that (what he was wearing was NOT impressively stylistically).

See; the current 'charisma' industry is focusing on the wrong or secondary things. The current Beauty industry is focusing actually on the SUPPORTIVE things with make-up and haircare b/c the LIGHT of your soul PRACTICALLY is what is central (and allure centers it properly) to the Light and IMAGE of you (in ALL dimensions).

We don't just see the physical BODY, ALLLLLLL of the higher dimensional dimensional 4D and 5D information is going to be there to varying degrees or not (ALWAYS in all visual media with humans).

And this matters BECAUSE today's intuitive clients, subscribers and followers are WAKING UP to see through B.S. and they are becoming more INTUITIVE, discerning and able to sniff out those who are not 'the brand they say they are' (and if they embody what they teach).

They are beginning to sense and see TRUTH beyond just how you PHYSICALLY present yourself.

We live in a vibrational universe.

BEING the real, embodied and expressed thing is everything for ORGANIC influence, recognition and success.

You cannot put a price on the REAL THING and this type of work gives direct access to the signatures of Power and Beauty itself FOR embodiment and amplifying the beauty and expression of one's soul (you and your future clients!)

APM saturates you in the advanced, practical psychic world view of allure consulting as well as the transformational power and magic to work as a professional energy healer and allure priestess for magical makeovers.

And you or your clients don't have to be famous to get them starlet results!

This is going to be an accelerated and intense year...take the next step being aware of our inauguration: being one of the first 3 to kick it off means taking serious interest now to reach out and see about getting in the start of the program.

Goddess means so many things and Goddess work (like this) helps to bridge into mainstream as allure consulting and transformation.

Think of that famous 90's song;

I'm a bitch, I'm a lover

I'm a child, I'm a mother

I'm a sinner, I'm a saint

-Meredith Brooks, 90's song 'Bitch'

The feminine experience IS archetypal. (And you know it too).

This work makes it CONSCIOUS for (more mainstream, awakening) women.

You of all people KNOW that the feminine experience and journey (as well as healing and reclamation) is ARCHETYPAL.

Not only that but so much of the HEALING that is possible can be done with and through archetypes.

Do you know that archetypes also hold MIRACLE CODES for your FUTURE soul-self desires and expression?

Now imagine working PROFESSIONALLY with them instead of remaining non-conscious (or worse; throwing them out with the bath-water like many have done)...as an Allure Priestess.

Let's be clear; archetypes are NOT God. They are God and Goddess fractals.

Working with and SCULPTING archetypal beauty expression is the future. It's taking 'what works now' with viral response and #fomo inducing beauty and fan response and HONING IT CONSCIOUSLY instead of unconsciously.

So you won't just have access to work powerfully and efficiently with all of the 100s+ of archetypes...It gets deeper than that because an Allure Priestess is certified in Muse's source lineage light-working methodology as a Grail archetype, you get DIVINE UNION CODES and expanded archetypal and reunification HEALING with the divine masculine (and my experience in being a Source Remembrance Gen Grail Magii).

An Allure Priestess will be able to perform (yes not just demon and entity removals yet also) Holy Daughter embodiment activations and more.

To offer pricier Grail activations like I do however will likely remain reserved for Muse Priestesses or women that are qualified as worthy in Sophia or Rose lines as Allure Priestesses (that is yet to be determined and may be for an extra training and initiation fee even if that).

We only want the grailed doing Grail activations for people and not all Allure Priestesses are going to be from or in a Grail line. I wouldn't worry about this detail now. As a certified AP, you'll be able to do most all activations including archetypes, gift, siddhic, allure and charisma.

The archetypes simply do not have the same problems that mortals do....you just have to find a way to access them without making it a psychological divergent 'study' because the key is always SOMATIC EMBODIMENT and FELT experience.

It's working with the archetypes consciously for embodiment (again; most Goddess work is on embodiment yet here you'll be at master realms with Essence and Expression as well). Truly working with (The) Light as well as how She comes across in person and on camera for embodied signature soul-self influence.

An allure priestess is a MASTER of working with archetypes like Vixen, Starlet, King, Lover, M/F Eros, Dark Goddess, Magician, etc...you will be literally amongst the best and most qualified in the world (along with the Muse Priestesses).

Archetypal Beauty is SUCH a prime practical area of professional allure consulting and transformation (that which we are single-handedly setting the INDUSTRY GOLD STANDARD ON).

Archetypal Medicine; a book I wrote years ago is just PART of the vast experience of working professionally with archetypes; some of which I have a special working relationship with (ie. Goddess, Isis, Muse...)

" NO ONE does archetypes like Rion "

Yes; our work centers on practical 'get paid for the session' work. There's no value conflicts around this being 'just a hobby' or issues around getting paid; you get paid and own it. Activations are the prime core of that.

ACTIVATIONS bring DIRECT temple space EXPERIENCES as cornerstones to people's lives. Upon certification and graduation, you will be able to work intelligently in consulting and activating certain archetypes for different people (which can include letting some know that they may not be ready for a certain archetype then and to follow y/our recommendations first).

Again; you are in the CENTRAL place with APM to have master level immersion and experience in working with archetypal power and beauty for transformation of consciousness and authentic visual charisma and allure. I have great experience in reading and working with the archetypes.

I know I'm mentioning this several times throughout but again; I wanted the unabridged liberty to just have super-flow instead of being concerned about endless editorializing. With APM you tap into the source of the flow itself as well. We are BOUNDLESS in this work.

And these results in you and your clients lives;

While the rest of beauty consultants are focused on superficial skin-deep mastery, you come in as a top allure consultant to show them, you're getting miracle makeovers and glow-ups for your client on DEEP levels that affects their consciousness, self-image, health, attraction and how people relate to them.

It's not just for others, it's for you too to BE the testament.

Cultivate your OWN signature allure, visual brand and influence. Going through APM is also like its own allure makeover. ALL AP's should have alchemical levels of Beauty to be a living testament of an AP and their own brand/work.

Because ESSENCE is the actual and tangible spiritual, sexual and social currency; it's far greater in value than that which isn't it. MOST Western adults do not have much or any charisma or allure (which has to do with the light body, essence, embodiment and expression variables and nothing to do with professional make-up or body language at source).

Even reiki and chi kung never connected practically to BEAUTY ITSELF and professional image....UNTIL NOW.

There is a market-wave TSUNAMI COMING.

Beauty is a multi-billion dollar industry. The inevitable evolution IS allure; the higher dimensional Truth of Beauty IN actual image itself. This is that trends hockey puck corporate motivationalists speak about from Wayne Gretzky.

AND.....we can start to WORK with sculpting, embodying and expression these immortal BEAUTY ESSENCES for true influence, expression and mastery. Allure consulting is the PROFESSIONAL realm of Light-working.

After all; essence is the CURRENCY of the DIVINE.

What makes an Instagram photo or post REALLY go beyond and predictably VIRAL with high response? Why is K-Pop 'actually' so HOT beyond just being a 'genre' of music with 'catchy' songs?

This one image of Lisa can cue you in to EVERYTHING that's actually going on.

THE REAL POWER GAME is archetypal. Fans think it's about the artist, genre, language but the REAL power and Beauty status game being played is archetypal and siddhic.

So beyond the lower truth that this is Lisa; the real secret in the realm of ALLURE here (the real power and beauty) is that it's actually immortal MUSE archetypal consciousness, light and vibe-truth embodied with and through her individual soul. There are other siddhic qualities as well.

THIS IS CRITICAL TO UNDERSTAND before the masses ever do because if you were to HELP people to EMBODY, RECLAIM and cultivate their ESSENCED Beauty, (divine masculine) power and allure...wow!

We have to understand the ALCHEMICAL NATURE OF BEAUTY (FEMININE) AND POWER (SOURCED PROPERLY MASCULINE) ITSELF.

She is in siddhic, near orgasmic bliss here.

TRULY INFLUENTIAL BEAUTY IS ALCHEMICAL meaning it TRANSFORMS in its presence (even holographically through recorded media). It bends the DNA of other people to ATTUNE TO ITS LIGHT. In other words it raises their EXPERIENCE itself through the Law of Resonance.

It's not fickle fashion trends...

It's being EMBODIED as your TRUE SOUL SELF amplified and expressed with archetypal and siddhic essences OF the divine itself. Stars and starlets in service to millions simply have more REASON to sacrifice their lower self to take on more light in their energy body to have more literal power and beauty TO influence.

With true charisma and allure consulting and transformation; we work WITH the essences for embodiment and expression with people's light bodies.

Well....what if you could WORK WITH THESE ARCHETYPAL, GIFT, SIDDHIC AND ELEMENTAL ESSENCES PROFESSIONALLY?

Thus is the path with Allure and Muse Priestess Mentorship.

In an ever competing world of social media, organic influence and following ESSENCE is the real currency with allure and charisma as its channels.

Allure helps people to feel the brand of YOU, celebrities and clients.

It's not just 'content' esp. as it relates to Beauty influence...is it 'content' that you're logging on to see and feel?

The true and future-proof SECRET to more organic professional visual influence is Charisma and Allure.

As I've said before;

ALLURE renders you FEELABLE

That's a golden ticket for organic social media response.

And in an era of ALIGNED, organic authentic marketing if you're a woman in business with and or as your OWN BRAND; this means EVERYTHING even though the yang marketers haven't found awareness or a way to hack it yet. This is ORGANIC..

With AI, there's going to become a larger gap between those who are leveraging it to appear as more experienced than they are but are not embodied...and a difference between the embodied and the disembodied that look great but in a 2D unfeeling sense. Social media is about (aligned ultimately for you/us) power and INFLUENCE.

And archetypes have power.

ARCHETYPES ARE LIKE GODS AND GODDESSES (They are God and Goddess fractals actually) which have POWER and BEAUTY. This is why everyone wants to sleep with them.

And MOST consumer-citizens do NOT have embodied power or beauty (essences/chi), nor do they have feelable charisma or allure.

Ready to LEAD THE WORLD in Beauty ascension bridging Goddess work, energy work and Beauty together for awakening women in the mainstream?

Inquire into joining Allure Priestess Mentorship today to become one of the world's first Allure priestesses and certified charisma/allure consultants! (And yes; the source brand is Sexy Chi).

Ok...well, that about wraps up the UNABRIDGED version of getting these inaugural codes out for the OPPORTUNITY to join Allure Priestess!
